COME TO
STETSON UNIVERSITY!

It is my great honor and privilege to extend to you a warm welcome on behalf of my Vice-President, Peter Urscheler, and the Stetson University Student Body. Today marks the beginning of a new chapter of the epic of your life. However, the conditions of today's world have paved the way for a chapter unlike any other before.

When you close this period of your life, you will not only remember your wonderful college experiences, but you will also be forced to remember them within the context of war and uncertainty. Nevertheless, I am confident that because you have chosen to attend Stetson University, your experiences will outshine the current events around the world today.

This year, I challenge you, the Student Body of Stetson University, to unite, construct, and further the value commitments unique to Stetson University. I urge you to maximize the numerous avenues available in our over ninety organizations on campus to increase your understanding of Stetson's core values, which include diversity, religious and spiritual life, gender equity, ethical decision-making, environmental responsibility, and community service.

Furthermore, I would like to extend to you the opportunity to have a voice in The Student Government Association. Not only is Student Government a great opportunity for you to prepare yourself for future leadership, but it is one of the many avenues available for exposure to diverse views.

Strive for academic success and develop lasting friendships. But most of all, remember Stetson's values commitments and make them your own. I guarantee you that if you do this, your college experience will be a meaningful one.

Sincerely,

Michael Davis
Student Government President

Stetson is a community committed to facilitating your intellectual, social, physical and spiritual development. Please take advantage of the variety of opportunities for challenge and growth that are offered to you.

"Connections" is an official publication of the University. It is designed to help you become aware of the opportunities available for personal development as well as the policies and procedures governing student life. Academic programs, policies and requirements are explained in greater detail in the Stetson University Bulletin.

We are glad you are here. We hope Stetson will be a better place because of your presence.

Sincerely,

James R. Beasley
Vice President for Administration and Chief Operating Officer

Stetson University is an Equal Opportunity institution that admits students of any race, color, sex, national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the University. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, age, color, sexual orientation, national and ethnic origin or disability in administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic and other school-administered programs, or in the recruitment and employment of its faculty and staff.

THE STETSON COMMUNITY

I. Educational Mission

Our mission at Stetson University is to provide an excellent education in a creative community where learning and values meet, and to foster in students the qualities of mind and heart that will prepare them to reach their full potential as informed citizens of local communities and the world.

At Stetson, the art of teaching is practiced through programs solidly grounded in a tradition of liberal learning that stimulate critical thinking, imaginative inquiry, creative expression, and lively intellectual debate. The art of learning is enhanced through small interactive classes, close student-faculty alliances, and collaborative approaches that provide the foundation for rewarding careers and advanced study in selective graduate and professional programs. We embrace diverse methodologies to foster effective communication, information and technological literacy, and aesthetic appreciation. We encourage the development of informed convictions, independent judgment, and lifelong commitments to learning that are characteristic features of the enlightened citizen. In bringing together learning and values, the University encourages all of its members to demonstrate personal integrity; to develop an appreciation for the spiritual dimension of life; to embrace leadership in an increasingly complex, interdependent, and technological world; and to commit to active forms of social responsibility.

II. Values and Vision

From its founding, Stetson University has affirmed the importance of spiritual life and the quest for truth in its educational mission. The University motto, Pro Deo et Veritate ("For God and Truth"), is a symbol of this commitment, and it expresses our determination to integrate the pursuit of a liberal education with the search for meaning in our lives and in our communities. Chartered as an independent and comprehensive university, Stetson has had an historical relationship with the Christian community and the Baptist denominations. That relationship has shaped our commitment to build an inclusive community. Today, the University includes persons from diverse religious, ethnic, cultural, economic, and intellectual backgrounds. It is thus from varying perspectives that members of the University community have joined together to affirm collectively:

- * the centrality of knowledge, examined ideas, and independent judgment in the life of an educated person;
- * the inherent dignity, worth, and equality of all persons;
- * the importance of community in human life;
- * the role of religious and spiritual quests for meaning in human experience;
- * the value of diverse persons and differing ideas in an educational community;
- * the responsibility we share to work toward social justice;
- * the necessity for decisions to be guided by ethics and social responsibility; and
- * the obligation of individuals and communities to act as responsible stewards of the natural environment.

In our curriculum and co-curricular activities, then, we aim to infuse liberal education with the values of religious and spiritual life, ethical decision-making, human diversity and commonality, gender equity, community service, and environmental responsibility. We aspire to develop distinctive, innovative, and interdisciplinary undergraduate and graduate programs that are centered on vigorous intellectual inquiry, informed by these values, increasingly global in perspective, and worthy of local and national recognition.

III. Heritage and Character

Florida's first private university, Stetson University was founded in 1883 by Henry A. DeLand, a New York philanthropist, as DeLand Academy. In 1887, the Legislature of the State of Florida enacted the Charter of DeLand University as an independent institution of higher learning. The University's name was changed in 1889 to honor John B. Stetson, the nationally-known hat manufacturer who gave generously of his time and means to advance the quality and reputation of the institution, and who served, with Mr. DeLand and others, as a founding trustee of the University. The first charter stated the object of the University should be

“to promote the general interests of education, and to qualify its students to engage in the learned professions or other employments of society, and to discharge honorably and usefully the various duties of life.” Stetson’s first president, Dr. John F. Forbes, clearly described the commitment to teaching that has been a hallmark of the University throughout its history:

“Buildings, libraries and apparatus are good and give added power, but the vital contact of students with a vigorous and stimulating mind and heart -- this is the sine qua non of a successful education.... The most important thing is to find men and women of large heart and mind, apt to teach and full of enthusiasm and stimulating power.... to develop in the student the habit of independent judgment -- of investigating statements and principles for oneself, and thus for oneself discover their truth or falsity.”

Today, Stetson University is a non-sectarian, comprehensive, private university composed of individually strong undergraduate programs in various colleges and schools, and a selected group of academically distinctive graduate, professional, and continuing education programs. We seek academically talented individuals with leadership potential and records of personal growth and community service. We promote and support scholarly and creative activity among students, faculty, and staff as a means to enhance learning, teaching, and professional development, and as a contribution to the broader base of knowledge.

The University Values Council

Stetson University centers its academic, campus life, and service programs on a rigorous examination of the values that support meaningful lives. The University Values Council was created in 1998 to lead this campus conversation about values and commitment to action in key areas. Council members include the chairs of six strategic councils who have planning responsibility for the commitments identified in the University’s statement of “Values and Vision”:

- * The Community Service Council
- * The Diversity Council
- * The Environmental Responsibility Council
- * The Ethical Decision-Making Council
- * The Gender Equity Council
- * The Religious and Spiritual Life Council

Each of these Councils draw on and in turn support Stetson’s academic programs, and each welcomes the participation of all students, faculty, and staff who have an active interest in an examination of values in academic study and through personal or institutional practices. The President of the University serves as chair of the Council. For additional information about the Values Council, its six constituent councils, related academic programs, and current initiatives, contact Mary Anne Rogers, Executive Assistant to the President and Values Council Coordinator, in DeLand Hall.

PRIDE, TRADITIONS AND HATTER MAGIC

Much of college life is built around traditions – the history of yesterday is linked to today. University traditions help develop a sense of loyalty through the years. When you return to campus as alumni, some things will have remained the same. Stetson University is rich in history, and now it will be a part of your history, too. Join in – become a part of the proud heritage and add a little “Hatter Magic” to your life.

Florida’s First Private University, Stetson University measures its quality in tangible ways

- Not only was Stetson the first private university established in Florida (1883), but it had the state’s first:
  - Business, law, and music schools;
  - Private university Phi Beta Kappa chapter;
  - College-level Model Senate program, a prototype for many others;

Federal document depository (established 1887);
 College newspaper, The Stetson Reporter, founded in 1887;
 Collegiate theatrical company, Stover Theatre, which is also the South's oldest;
 First engineering school, although later closed;
 First Continuing Education Program.

- The Stetson University College of Law is the first and only law school to win all five national mock trial team competitions in one academic year.
- The College of Law was ranked in the U.S. News and World Report "2003 Best Graduate Schools" survey a first in the nation for trial advocacy training.
- The new Stetson University Center at Celebration, opened in September of 2001, is Osceola County's first university campus.
- Stetson ranks fourth among the South's top regional universities in the 2003 U.S. News and World Report national survey, "America's Best Colleges," and is listed favorably in all major national college guides.
- Stetson's student-faculty ratio is 11 to 1, one of the lowest in the nation.
- Stetson's athletic milestones include the following: first Florida university to earn 1,000 victories in its men's basketball program; first intercollegiate baseball game vs. Rollins College in 1895; first intercollegiate football game vs. Florida Agricultural College (University of Florida) in 1901 (won 6-0); first intercollegiate men's basketball game vs. Florida Southern in 1913 (won 30-16); and first intercollegiate women's basketball game vs. Rollins College in 1906 (won 39-16).
- The Gillespie Museum of Minerals, recommended in all major tourism guides, has one of the largest private mineral collections in the world and the largest in the Southeast (more than 25,000 specimens).
- The Roland George Investments Program, in which students invest a real portfolio of more than $2.6 million, is one of the first and most distinctive in the nation. For two consecutive years, George students have captured top honors in the national investment competition RISE (Redefining Investment Strategy Education).
- The duPont-Ball Library, with more than 300,000 publications in state and federal document holdings, has one of the nation's most comprehensive data archives.
- Stetson's core campus was designated a National Historic District in 1991.
- More than half of Stetson's students are involved in active community service, and Stetson students have been recognized for volunteer leadership by the State of Florida and by Florida Leader magazine.
- The Russian Studies Program, with its own center, ranks as the South's most comprehensive and one of the nation's best.
- Stetson's Community School of the Arts Children's Choir is ranked as one of the nation's best, and has been chosen twice to "lead the world" during the PBS World's Largest Concert. The Children's Choir served as Young- Artists-in-Residence at the Choral Music Experience Institute in Scotland in July 2000. (Updated March 2003)

What is a Hatter?

The unlikely combination of a famous hat manufacturer and a university produced a novel nickname for Stetson University. The athletic teams are called "Hatters," reflecting the university's association with John B. Stetson, maker of the well-known Stetson hats. It all began in 1883 when Henry DeLand founded the DeLand Academy. Three years later, after a disastrous freeze affecting the citrus industry left DeLand in financial distress, Stetson, who had a winter home in DeLand, became interested in the school. At DeLand's request, Stetson was made chairman of the Board of Trustees in 1889 and the university was renamed in his honor. Stetson University fielded the first football team in Florida in 1901. The name "Hatter" was used then and is still in use today.

The Stetson Colors

The official Stetson colors are a rich dark green (PMS 342) and white, representing the trees and orange blossoms prevalent in the Central Florida area. White represents purity, and green, significant growth. At the first commencement in 1893, the stage was decorated in green and white. These colors also were used first at the beginning of intercollegiate athletics in Florida. Newspaper accounts of the first Florida college football game in 1901 told of Stetson fans waving their colors of green and white as they cheered their team to victory.

The Victory Bell at Hollis Center

A Victory Bell, made in Aarau, Switzerland, brings new vitality and traditions to student life at Stetson University. Hanging in a freestanding 43.5-foot bell tower on the west side of Hollis Center, the bronze, C-toned Victory Bell weighs 575 pounds, measures 30 inches in diameter at its base, and is 29.5 inches high. It is inscribed with the quotation: "VICTORY COMES FROM DOING YOUR BEST." Student groups ring the bell to announce victories important to them — both in athletic and intellectual competitions.

ALMA MATER

Dear Alma Mater, smile upon thy children!
Gladly we greet thee, altogether lovely;
Peace be within thy classic halls and temples,
Hail, Alma Mater dear!

Hail to the heroes who have gone before us,
Young men and maidens, filled with true devotion!
Bright is their glory, fadeless and undying,
Hail to our heroes gone!

Hail to our classmates, bound by ties ne'er broken;
Here once again we pledge our vows of friendship;
Brave hearts and true hearts sound aloud and chorus,
Long live our comrades dear!

Dear Alma Mater, tenderly thy children
Gather, and bring to thee gracious salutations;
Comrades, your voices lift once again in chorus;
Hail, Alma Mater dear!

THE STETSON COMMUNITY

COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY

Stetson is dedicated to creating and enriching an inclusive community that reflects an awareness and appreciation of the contributions of the different traditions reflected in a pluralistic society. The Stetson community is committed to instilling the values of ethical decision-making, global awareness, environmental awareness, community service and civic responsibility. Hence, we believe in the value of class equity, gender equity and race equity and vigorously strive to achieve an environment that creates and sustains these values.

As a university, therefore, Stetson recognizes that women and men of diverse racial, ethnic, religious, cultural and socioeconomic backgrounds are fundamental to the process of education. For this reason, the University's diversity plan articulates the University's belief that diversity is integral to education. Specifically, Stetson strives to express the following commitments:

- to create and foster a diverse community that appreciates, encourages, and protects all of its members
- to establish an environment in which all members participate in the intellectual, spiritual, and social life of the institution as well as in its decision-making process
- to provide contact with a diverse group of students, faculty, and staff, as well as foster an intellectual experience that recognizes, understands, and esteems the distinctive contributions of these diverse groups
- to encourage our students to become well-informed, responsible, and positive world citizens who have an appreciation and capacity to relate to people of differing cultures
- to regularly investigate the status, success, and/or shortcomings of our efforts and to make these results public

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

The Stetson University Bulletin is the official University publication which contains information regarding degree requirements, grades, class attendance, academic probation, etc. The Bulletin is available online at stetson.edu/bulletin.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

A detailed listing of all academic requirements, including those for a specific degree and major, may be found in the University Bulletin. It is the student's responsibility to insure that all requirements for graduation have been met.

To assist the student in this effort, the Office of the Registrar maintains an up-to-date "degree audit" for each student. This outlines the requirements of the student's major and records his/her progress toward the degree. The student is sent a copy of the degree audit each semester prior to academic advising and registration.

The following is a summary of some academic policies and procedures about which students frequently ask:

CHANGE OF MAJOR OR MINOR

A student who wishes to declare or change a major or minor should first consult with his/her academic adviser. The change may then be made in the office of the appropriate academic Dean.

ACADEMIC LOAD

A student must average 15 hours per semester to graduate in four years. A student who carries fewer than 12 hours is a part-time student. A part-time student does not qualify for the Honor Roll or Dean's List and may not qualify for certain kinds of financial aid or for other benefits which require certification of full-time status. Students who take eight hours or more pay full tuition. Fewer than six hours is considered part-time for summer school.

ATTENDANCE

Regular attendance is required in most classes. Stetson prescribes no general attendance rule; the individual colleges and schools may establish attendance regulations, but usually attendance requirements are established by individual professors for their own classes.

ACADEMIC RECORDS

Academic records, to include transcripts, are maintained in the Registrar's Office. Students may examine their personal records upon request. Records are not released without the student's written permission. Exceptions to this policy are granted to administrative and faculty personnel within the University who have a need to know. A charge is assessed for each transcript that is requested. Transcripts may be withheld if the student is not in good financial standing with the University or in default on any federal loan.

INTERPRETATION OF GRADES AND QUALITY POINTS

Grades and quality points represent the instructor's final estimate of the student's performance in a course. The grade of A (+ or -) may be interpreted to mean that the instructor recognizes exceptional capacity and exceptional performance. The grade of B (+ or -) signifies that the student has gained a significantly more effective command of material than is generally expected in the course. The grade of C+ or C is the instructor's certification that the student has demonstrated the required mastery of the material. A student is graded C- or D (+ or -) when his/her grasp of the course essentials is minimal. The F grade indicates failure to master the essentials and the necessity for repeating the course before credit may be earned.

Quality points are values assigned to letter grades. Students' cumulative grade-point averages are based on a four-point scale. Letter grades are assigned the following numerical equivalents per semester hour:

A+ = 4.00	B+ = 3.33	C+ = 2.33	D+ = 1.33
A = 4.00	B = 3.00	C = 2.00	D = 1.00
A- = 3.67	B- = 2.67	C- = 1.67	D- = 0.67
			F = 0.00
			XF = 0.00

I = Incomplete. This is the grade given when, because of illness or other extenuating conditions, the instructor's academic Dean has approved an extension of time for the completion of a course. The work of the course must be completed two weeks prior to the last day of classes in the next academic semester of enrollment (excluding summer term); but in all cases, except graduate thesis courses, it must be removed within 24 months from the date issued, regardless of enrollment status; otherwise the I becomes an F. If a grade of I has been assigned, in no case may the course be repeated to improve grade standing.

P = credit, no quality points earned, does not affect grade-point average.

W = an approved withdrawal from the University before the mid-term grade inventory. No credit or quality points are earned and the grade-point average is not affected.

WP = an approved withdrawal from the University after the mid-term grade inventory. The grade is given according to the instructor's evaluation. No credit or quality points are earned and the grade-point average is not affected.

WF = an approved withdrawal from the University after the mid-term grade inventory. The grade is given according to the instructor's evaluation. No credit or quality points are earned, but the grade WF is treated as hours attempted and the grade-point average is affected.

X = the grade received for late drop of a course without academic penalty. No credit or quality points are earned and the grade-point average is not affected. The grade must be approved by the student's academic Dean.

XF = the grade received for late drop of a course with academic penalty. No credit or quality points are earned, but the grade XF is treated as hours attempted and the grade-point average is affected. The grade must be approved by the student's academic Dean.

FORGIVENESS OF "F" GRADE

Under certain stipulations stated below, an undergraduate student may repeat a failed course to receive credit and improve the cumulative grade-point average. If a higher grade is earned, the hours attempted and grade earned for the first failed attempt will not be used in computing the student's cumulative GPA.

Limitations

Students may apply for grade forgiveness only ONCE for any single course, and are allowed to apply for grade forgiveness a maximum of TWICE during their undergraduate years at Stetson.

Students applying for grade forgiveness are required to repeat the failed course within the next four semesters of enrollment; if the course is not offered within the next four enrolled semesters, the course must be retaken the next time it is offered at the DeLand campus.

The Pass/Fail grade option may not be used when repeating a failed course, unless it was the grade option selected for the initial attempt.

Eligibility

This policy pertains to undergraduate, degree-seeking students only and applies to F grades earned on the DeLand campus during the fall semester of 2003 and subsequent academic terms. Failed courses that are repeated must be taken at the DeLand campus.

Result of grade forgiveness

If grade forgiveness is awarded for a particular course, the first F that was received in that course will not be calculated into the student's GPA. Both the forgiven grade and the passing grade will, however, appear on the student's transcript.

Application procedure

To have a failed course forgiven, the student must obtain a Grade Forgiveness form from the Registrar's Office, have it signed by the Dean of the College or School in which the failed course is taught, and return it to the Registrar's Office by the end of the Add period.

CHANGE OF REGISTRATION (DROP/ADD)

During the first few days of each term, an opportunity is afforded to students to make changes in their class schedules. The exact dates for this period are published in the official University calendar included in this handbook. During the first week of drop/add, changes can be made via the Web. A pin number is required to do this. After the "add" period, changes can only be made in the Registrar's Office with the necessary change-of-registration forms that are available in the Registrar's Office. Within the drop/add period, a certain initial period of time is allowed for students to add as well as drop courses, followed by a period of time in which students may only drop courses without academic penalty. It is imperative that students consult the University calendar for the exact dates provided each term for adding or dropping courses. A change of registration after the Add period does not reduce charges. A course dropped after the drop period carries a grade of X or XF as determined by the student's academic dean. No course may be dropped during the last day of classes in any given term.

PASS/FAIL CREDIT

A student has the option of taking, on a pass/fail basis a total of two courses not ordinarily pass/fail. To exercise this option, students must obtain a pass/fail form from the Office of the Registrar, have the form signed by the faculty advisor, and return it to the Registrar prior to the end of the period. Once initiated, the pass/fail option may not be changed.

For students majoring in the College of Arts & Sciences or the School of Music, the pass/fail option may be used only for courses which are not applied toward a major or minor and applied toward Foundation Requirements (Part I) for the Arts and Sciences general education program, or toward the English, Mathematics, and Communications course requirements for Music School degrees.

For students majoring in the School of Business Administration, the pass/fail option may be used only during the junior or senior year and may be used only for courses that are beyond all School of Business Administration requirements, not applied toward a minor, and offered outside the School of Business Administration.

EXAMINATIONS

Examinations are given in all courses at the end of each academic term. Students who miss an examination without prior permission from the Dean of the applicable school or college will be graded "F" in that course.

ACADEMIC WITHDRAWALS

If an enrolled student wishes to withdraw from the University, dropping all courses and leaving campus, he or she must comply with the withdrawal process described below. The policy for dropping an individual course is described elsewhere in the Handbook. (See Change of Registration—Drop/Add.)

Students who leave the University without proper permission automatically suspend themselves and can be re-admitted only by special approval of the dean of the appropriate College or School. A grade of F is recorded for all courses when a student leaves without prior approved withdrawal.

Official Withdrawal Procedures

1. The withdrawal process must be completed by the student at least two (2) weeks prior to the last day of classes in a semester (excluding summer term). Students may not withdraw during the last two (2) weeks of a semester.

2. The withdrawal process is initiated in the Office of the Registrar and must be approved by the Dean of the College/School in which the student is enrolled.
3. Upon the Dean's approval to withdraw, the student must carry the Withdrawal Form to the office of the Dean of Students (Carlton Union Building) and the Office of Student Financial Planning (Griffith Hall) for information and signatures.
4. The Withdrawal Form must be returned to the Office of the Registrar to complete the withdrawal process. Once initiated, the withdrawal process must be completed within seven calendar days from the Registrar's date stamp on the form. No Withdrawal Forms will be accepted after 4:30 p.m. on the last day to officially withdraw during that semester.
5. When a student completes the withdrawal process, withdrawal will be recorded on the permanent academic record as follows:
  - a. If completed before the mid-term grade inventory, a grade of "W" will be assigned for each course. No credit or quality points are earned and the grade point average is not affected.
  - b. If completed after the mid-term inventory, a grade of "WP" or "WF" will be assigned for each course according to the instructor's evaluation of the student's performance to that point. WF's, but not WP's, shall be treated as hours attempted and the grade point average is affected.

UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE MEDICAL WITHDRAWAL

The Medical Withdrawal Committee will determine those instances where a medical withdrawal, whether for physical or mental health reasons, would be used instead of the regular institutional withdrawal. Academic Deans must obtain a written recommendation from the Medical Withdrawal Committee as a basis for approving a medical withdrawal. The Medical Withdrawal Committee will determine criteria for required medical documentation and standards for responding to a request for a medical withdrawal.

Medical Withdrawal Committee will determine if there are special conditions to be stated regarding re-enrollment of a student withdrawing for medical reasons.

The Medical Withdrawal Committee shall consist of the Academic Dean of the College/School in which the student is enrolled, the Director of the Counseling Center, and the Dean of Students. The Academic Dean will chair the Committee.

ACADEMIC STANDING

Every undergraduate student enrolled at Stetson University is expected to earn and maintain an average grade of at least "C" (2.0 G.P.A.) on all course work attempted, that is, earning a total of at least 2 quality points for each credit hour attempted. A cumulative average of "C" (2.0 G.P.A.) is required for graduation.

ACADEMIC WARNING

Any student whose cumulative average falls below a "C" (2.0 G.P.A.) at the end of a grading period will be placed on academic warning. This warning will be in effect until an overall "C" (2.0 G.P.A.) average is regained. If a student earns a "C" (2.0 G.P.A.) or higher average for a single semester but the cumulative average remains below a "C", the warning will be continued.

ACADEMIC SUSPENSION

A student already on academic warning will be automatically suspended from the University for a period of seven months if the cumulative grade point average at the end of any grading period falls below minimum acceptable levels.

Minimum Acceptable Grade Point Average

Hours attempted	GPA
1-26	1.500
27-60	1.600
61-90	1.700
91+	1.800

Students failing all coursework during the first semester at the University will be automatically suspended. Academic work taken at another institution during the time a student is on academic suspension will not be accepted for credit toward the requirements for graduation at Stetson University.

READMISSION AFTER SUSPENSION

A student who has been academically suspended is eligible to apply for readmission after the period of suspension has been completed. The student should apply to the dean of the college or school for readmission at least thirty days prior to the scheduled date of registration for the term for which the student seeks readmission. A student readmitted to the University following an academic suspension must enroll in the University's LEAP program (Academic Support Office) and must maintain a grade point average of 2.000 for each grading period until the academic warning has been removed.

ACADEMIC DISMISSAL

Students readmitted to the University following an academic suspension who fail to maintain a grade point average of 2.000 for each grading period until academic warning has been removed will be automatically dismissed from the University. Under ordinary circumstances, a student will not be readmitted to the University following such a dismissal.

ADMINISTRATION AND APPEALS

Academic suspension and readmission are the administrative responsibilities of the deans of the college and schools. Inquiries, appeals, and requests for readmission should be directed to the appropriate dean.

REENTRY

Students in good standing who reenter the University after being absent for one semester or more (Fall or Spring) do so through the Office of the Registrar. Upon reentry, students must meet the degree requirements of the University Bulletin in effect at the time of their reentry.

MID-TERM GRADE REPORT

Once during each semester, unsatisfactory grades are reported. Only grades less than C are reported and these are not recorded on the student's permanent record. They are simply to give the student an idea of progress up to Mid-Term. It is the student's responsibility to arrange for conferences with the instructor, faculty advisor, the student's Dean, or anyone else whom the student feels may be of help.

GRADING GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The teacher of each course has authority over all academic matters, including (but not limited to) establishing requirements and assigning grades. Students are entitled to full and clear explanations of their grades. Students have the right to protection from capricious action. A student who desires to appeal a decision on a semester grade must follow the procedures listed in the Bulletin (see page 33). The appeal must be initiated no later than the last day to drop courses without academic penalty in the Spring or Fall semester immediately following the term of the course in question.

PROCEDURES FOR GRIEVANCE CONCERNING OTHER ACADEMIC POLICIES

For all other grievances, students talk with the instructor and/or department chair, and, in the spirit of collegial problem solving, attempt to resolve the concern. If the student thinks that a complete or satisfactory explanation has not been provided, the student may direct an appeal in writing to the Dean of the College or School. The Dean has the responsibility for maintaining the integrity of all academic policies and regulations of the University and the decision of the Dean is considered to be final.

Stetson is committed to fairness, equity, and justice in all relationships. A student who feels that the decision by the Dean is either arbitrary or grossly unfair may appeal the Dean's decision to the President. This appeal must be in writing and must show why, in the view of the student, the decision of the Dean was unfair. The appeal should be delivered to the Office of the President and should provide the President with the following additional data:

- full name
- student number
- academic major
- academic advisor
- local address
- local telephone number

The President will communicate his/her response to the formal appeal in writing to the local address provided by the student after consultation with the involved parties.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Academic honesty and integrity are essential to the well-being and proper functioning of an academic community. Any time students attempt to gain access to information pertaining to their normal course of study through dishonest means, they not only show little concern for their own personal sense of integrity, but they infringe also on the rights of all other members of the academic community. The following definitions and examples should be referred to as forms of academic integrity violations.

- A. Cheating: No student shall use or attempt to use unauthorized materials, notes, or information from another student about normal course work that is intended to be done on an individual basis, either in class or out of class. Examples include, but are not limited to: copying from another person's research, paper, test or quiz; using testing aids during a test where no permission has been given by the particular section's instructor; copying reports, laboratory work, computer work, programs or files; collaborating on laboratory or computer work without specific permission from the particular section's instructor; taking an exam for another student.
- B. Fabrication and Falsification: No student shall, either through intentional or unauthorized means, alter any information or citation in their academic work. Examples include, but are not limited to: inventing or providing false data, information or results; producing a false record concerning academic internships; altering the record of data; altering grade reports; providing a false citation of a source of information; providing false information regarding excuses from classes, laboratories, exams, quizzes and/or practicum experiences.
- C. Multiple Submissions: No student shall submit either a paper, test or quiz, or any portion thereof, which was obtained from a paper, test or quiz previously submitted for academic credit for any course.
- D. Plagiarism: No student shall intentionally or knowingly present the work of another person without the expressed permission of the original author. Examples include, but are not limited to, the use of another's complete sentence, syntax, key words, graphs, charts or even only the ideas and information provided by another. Computer programs and files must also be utilized only with the inclusion of a citation referring one to the original source of the file and/or program.
- E. Abuse of Academic Materials: No student shall destroy, steal or make inaccessible any academic resource material. Examples include, but are not limited to, the hiding of library resource material, reference material, intentionally altering another student's laboratory work/results.
- F. Complicity in Academic Dishonesty: No student shall knowingly assist, offer guidance or support for another student's attempt, or be personally involved in an attempt to obtain in any deceptive or unauthorized manner, information or documents such as tests, examinations, roll books, reports, etc., that are considered to be the confidential or private property of other students, faculty, administrative personnel, or the University. Examples include, but are not limited to, knowingly permitting another to copy one's own paper/work, or paper/work of another; distributing or providing others with test or research material/questions; taking an exam for another student; collaborating with another student with the intent of submitting work intended to be presented as original.

G. The following policies will cover acts of dishonesty:

1. On the first occurrence in any course, the minimum penalty will be a zero on the paper, test, or examination. The maximum penalty will be failure in the course. The instructor will confer with the accused student and inform him/her as to what specific penalty, within these limits, he/she intends to impose. Generally, the first occurrence of academic dishonesty is handled by the instructor of the course, but may be referred to the Student Judicial Officer for adjudication.
2. Once a charge of academic dishonesty has been resolved, notice of the occurrence will be sent to the Student Judicial Officer and to the appropriate academic Dean to become a part of the student's record.
3. Upon receipt of a report of a second occurrence in any course by the same student, the Student Judicial Officer will initiate appropriate action under the Student Code of Conduct.
4. Administrative disciplinary action for academic dishonesty is not to be considered in any way a substitute for an academic penalty imposed by the instructor for the same offense.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Undergraduate students who have attended Stetson University only and whose cumulative grade point average (GPA) is between 3.500 and 3.699 are graduated Cum Laude; if it is between 3.700 and 3.899 they are graduated Magna Cum Laude; and if it is 3.9 or higher they are graduated Summa Cum Laude.

Undergraduates who have attended other academic institutions and have earned 60 or more credit hours at Stetson are also eligible for graduation academic honors. In such cases the academic requirements for honors must be met both on all graded work taken at Stetson, and on all the combined graded work taken at Stetson and at all previous institutions. Students may receive recognition for academic achievement during a particular semester. The Honor Roll includes undergraduates with a 3.0 GPA based on at least twelve hours work attempted with no grade below a "C." The Dean's List includes undergraduates with a 3.5 GPA based on at least twelve hours of work attempted and no grade below a "B."

All labs are equipped with Pentium III or higher microcomputer systems. A valid student ID is required to access any computer lab. The schedule for the labs will be modified during holidays and finals week. Modified schedules will be posted at least one week in advance.

Student HelpDesk

A Student HelpDesk is available to assist with residential networking questions, application support, network and e-mail access accounts and passwords, voice-mail system support and diagnostic assistance related to network connectivity. The Student HelpDesk is located in the main lab cluster in the Media Center, Room 28 for walk-in assistance. Students may also e-mail the Student Help Desk at labhelp@stetson.edu, or call 822-7031 for assistance.

The hours of operation are:

Monday – Thursday - 8:00 am – 1:00 am
Friday - 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

Saturday - 12:00 pm – 5:00 pm
Sunday - 12:00 pm – 1:00 am

For additional information, please visit IT's computer lab web site at <http://www.stetson.edu/cit/facilities/>.

IT Residential Networking (ResNet) Services

ResNet services allows all students, who live in University-owned Residence Halls and who own a computer, to be directly connected to the Stetson network. There is a network connection for every student, so that those students sharing a room may have their own personal connection and be connected simultaneously.

Should students need assistance with installation or configuration of a Network Interface Card (NIC), Technical ResNet Assistants (TRA's) are available for on-site visits. If it is more convenient, students also have the option to deliver their computer to the ResNet Support Services office. ResNet Support Services is located in the Media Center, Room 28. Please call 822-7031 to schedule an appointment. The hours of operation are:

Monday-Friday

8:00 am - 5:00 pm

For additional information, please visit IT's ResNet web site at <http://www.stetson.edu/help/resnet/>. On this site you will find information concerning an overview of ResNet, installation options and instructions, hardware recommendations, supported hardware and software, troubleshooting information and a Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) section. For additional questions, please e-mail ResNet Support Services at resnet@stetson.edu.

Stetson University Computing Code of Conduct

Users of computing and networking resources are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not abuse or interfere with individual or institutional activities. Theft or other abuse of computer time and/or network services includes but is not limited to:

- Use of another individual's identification and password.
- Unauthorized entry into a file to use, read, or change its contents.
- Unauthorized transfer of a file.
- Use of computing facilities to interfere with the work of another student, staff, or faculty member.
- Use of computing facilities to send obscene or abusive messages or messages that contain profanity.

- Use of computing facilities to interfere with normal operations of Stetson University's computing systems.
- Use of networking facilities that is not in compliance with the Networking Code of Computing Ethics, published by Information Technology.
- As Stetson University is a member of the Internet, one must comply with the Networking Code of Computing Ethics when accessing the Internet from Stetson University.
- One must also comply with the EDUCOM Code when accessing the Internet from Stetson University. This Code has also been established for all Internet users by EDUCOM.
- Use of libelous or slanderous language (defaming another person's character or reputation).

The EDUCOM Code

Respect for intellectual labor and creativity is vital to academic discourse and enterprise. This principle applies to works of all authors and publishers in all media. It encompasses respect for the right to acknowledgment, the right to privacy, and the right to determine the form, manner, and terms of publication and distribution.

Because electronic information is volatile and easily reproduced, respect for the work and personal expression of others is especially critical in computer environments. Violations of authorial integrity, including plagiarism, invasion of privacy, unauthorized access, and trade secret and copyright violations, may be grounds for sanctions against members of the academic community.

Networking Code of Computing Ethics

The Internet is to be used to facilitate the exchange of information consistent with the academic, educational, and research purposes of its members. Users of the Internet are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not interfere with or harass individual or institutional activities.

Ethical standards that apply to the use of computer resources are derived directly from the standards of common sense, decency, and courtesy that apply to the use of any public resource. The following standards apply to the use of the Internet:

- * Offensive, rude, obscene, or harassing material via any electronic mail or bulletin board facility is strictly forbidden.
- * The Internet is not to be used for political or commercial purposes.
- * Broadcasting messages to lists or individuals is not allowed.
- * Chain letters are not allowed.
- * Any communication which violates applicable laws and regulations is not allowed on the Internet.

Users and non-users must not encourage, collaborate, or tolerate the violation of this Code by any other person. It is University policy that anyone with knowledge of violations or suspected violations must report this information to the Information Technology.

Code of Conduct for Stetson Computer Lab Use

1. You must present your Stetson Student ID each time you enter the computer labs. Not having a Stetson ID will result in no access to the computer labs. The Lab Assistants have the authority to ask for your ID even while you are working on a computer.
2. No smoking, drinking or eating is allowed in any computing facility. Neither open or unopened food, drinks or tobacco products are allowed in the labs.

3. You must be considerate of other users. Privacy and concentration are important in the computer labs. If you need to talk to somebody, please do so in a way that does not disturb other lab users.
4. Lab Assistants are not allowed to debug your program, interpret class assignments, or help with your homework. The Lab Assistants are there to help you with using the technology so that you may complete your work.
5. The computing labs are an academic resource. The following will not be permitted in the computer labs: games, Internet relay chat software, MUD's, etc.
6. Lab management is not responsible for any diskettes or belongings left in the computer labs. Please make sure you take your diskettes with you when you leave. If a diskette becomes stuck or jammed in any drive, it will be removed. Data recovery will be attempted for the convenience of the user.
7. Do not make changes to the hard drive configurations of the computers in the labs.
8. You are not allowed to copy any documents or applications to the systems hard drive. Academic documents may be temporarily saved to the "C:\My Documents" directory for Windows computers or the "Documents" folder on Macintosh desktops. All files are deleted from the "C:\My Documents" directory upon each restart of a lab computer and the "Documents" folder is emptied each Monday. Software that is downloaded from the Internet is not to be installed on any lab computer for any purpose. Save your work to your own floppy disk or to your Novell account.
9. Students are not allowed to print large quantities of flyers, banners or other distribution materials. If print jobs of this nature are required, one copy may be printed in the labs and copies will need to be processed through the University Print Shop or an alternative printing facility.
10. Attempting to damage or destroy information on the computers will not be tolerated.
11. You are expected to leave your computer workstation in the same condition as you found it. This includes putting chairs back in place and exiting all open applications when you leave.
12. Sexual harassment of any type will not be tolerated in the computer labs. Examples of sexual harassment may include, but are not limited to: sexual battery, displaying pornographic images, verbal harassment or abuse of a sexual nature, cyber-sex or chatroom sex, subtle pressure for sexual activity, etc.
13. You are responsible for reading and abiding by all signs posted in the labs.

Stetson WWW Publishing Code of Conduct

World Wide Web pages represent you as well as Stetson University, whether published as a department or as an individual. This access to and use of the Internet is a privilege and should be treated as such by all users of Stetson's system.

Because electronic information is volatile and easily reproduced, respect for the work and personal expression of others is critical in computer environments. United States copyright and patent laws protect the interests of authors, inventors, and software developers in their products. Software license agreements serve to increase compliance with copyright and patent laws and to help insure publishers, authors, and developers of return on their investments. It is against federal law and University policy to violate the copyrights or patents of others on or through the Internet. Students, faculty, or staff may not use copyrighted or patented material without obtaining written authorization. Violations of authorial integrity, plagiarism, invasion of privacy, unauthorized access, and violations of trade secret or copyright laws violate University academic policy.

Freedom of expression, including computerized expression, is a constitutional right afforded to all members of the community. Stetson network users should realize that there are services available on the Internet which may be considered offensive. With this in mind, users must take responsibility for their own navigation of the Internet. Stetson requests that WWW home pages be published in an ethical manner that is consistent with the generally accepted decorum of civic and academic discourse.

Publishers and browsers of World Wide Web pages must not encourage, collaborate, or tolerate the violation of this code by any other person. It is the University's expectation that anyone with knowledge of violations or suspected violations report this information to the Office of Student Judicial Affairs or Information Technology.

Abuse of WWW publication privileges will be subject to disciplinary action and violators will be subject to the judicial procedures of the University as stated in the Campus Life Handbook and the Employee Handbook. Computing privileges may be temporarily suspended upon the discovery of a possible violation of this policy. This suspension will remain in effect until an appropriate hearing can be conducted and a determination can be made as to the violation.

Residential Networking Code of Conduct

- In order to maintain security and accountability, anonymous attachment of computers to network services is not allowed. I will complete all paperwork in full in order to receive connectivity to the Internet and email services through Stetson University's network servers.
- I will not setup any server on mine, or any other computer. This includes Web, FTP, Quake, MUD, NEWS, IRC, or any other kind of server. I understand that if my system is found to be running a server, the authorization on the network will be revoked.
- I will not attempt to specify my machine's host name for any reason. I understand that the network addresses are dynamically assigned and host names will be created by I.T.
- I will not configure any type of software to enable file access to another person's computer.

duPONT-BALL LIBRARY

The recently renovated and expanded duPont-Ball Library holds approximately 338,000 volumes, including 61,000 bound journal volumes, a Federal government documents collection of 248,000 pieces, 400,000 microforms, and more than 2,000 videos and DVDs. The Library subscribes to more than 100 online databases, many of them providing full text of reference works and journal articles. The Library has 23 research workstations with printers, 2 scanners, and 6 other workstations without printers for email and non-research purposes. Printing from the research workstations and from the microform readers is provided without charge to Stetson students.

Assistance with your research and other questions is available daily at the Reference Desk, and individual reference assistance is also available by appointment. For Web access to the Library's catalog, full-text databases, and other information, connect to the Library's web site: <http://www.stetson.edu/departments/library>

Books and other materials placed on Reserve by faculty are available at the Circulation Desk. A typewriter and video / DVD players are also available for use within the Library. All material to be used outside the Library and reserve materials must be checked out at the Circulation Desk. You must present your Stetson ID to check out materials. Books may be checked out for four weeks and videos for seven days. Scores and recordings are housed in the Jenkins Music Library in Presser Hall.

The duPont-Ball Library is open to Stetson students, staff, and faculty, as well as Stetson Library Associates. The Library strives to maintain an atmosphere conducive to research, study, and collegial interaction. For a current copy of the Library's Code of Conduct, Access Policy, and Internet Use Policy, see <http://www.stetson.edu/departments/library/conduct.html>.

CAMPUS LIFE SERVICES

ACADEMIC SUPPORT OFFICE

The Academic Support Office (ASO) offers learning/study skills development to all Stetson University students in the form of drop in sessions and individual assistance, such as LEAP (Learning Enrichment and Assistance Program). In addition, we act as a liaison between faculty and students with documented disabilities by recommending reasonable accommodations for a successful college experience.

The mission of the ASO is: 1) to provide resources to all students who want to enhance their academic performance, regardless of their current level of academic achievement; 2) to facilitate a successful transition from high school work to the rigorous demands of college by equipping students with effective learning/study skills; 3) to advocate for equal access to educational opportunities for all qualified students, regardless of disability.

The ASO is located in the CUB, Room 101. Please call 822-7127 or view www.stetson.edu/campuslife/academicsupport for more information.

CAREER SERVICES

Career Services offers all the tools necessary from self-discovery to successful graduate school admission or landing a competitive job interview. Individual self-assessment is available begins with state-of-the-art computer-based tests that combine skills, interests and values to identify possible majors and future career choices. In addition, individual career advising assists students with their career planning needs, whether it be choosing a career direction, preparing for graduate school, or planning a job search strategy.

The Career Services staff has successfully developed relationships with top employers both locally and nationally, providing competitive jobs and internship opportunities throughout the year. Workshops, panels and information sessions are scheduled to instruct students on a broad spectrum of career planning and development skills. Employment and graduate school opportunities are available to students through the on-campus recruiting program, formal presentations, and two annual career fairs. As a charter member of the prestigious Colleges of Central Florida Career Consortium, Stetson Career Services participates in the annual Career Expo hosting an average of 100 employers.

The Career Services office is located in Flagler Hall and is open from 8:00 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. A career library featuring an extensive collection of information on careers, employers, industries and geographic locations is available on a walk-in basis. Individual appointments can be made by calling 386-822-7315. Additional information is available on the Career Services web site at www.stetson.edu/careerservices.

OFFICE OF THE CHAPLAIN

As part of Stetson's ongoing commitment to its religious heritage, the University Chaplain provides for and supports the religious and spiritual needs of students. The Office of the Chaplain plans, implements, and sponsors religiously oriented programs; provides counseling and pastoral care; serves as a liaison with religious groups, on campus and off; offers ecumenical worship services and interfaith programming; and assists the campus in nurturing a caring and respectful environment for full and diverse expressions of the life of faith.

COUNSELING CENTER

The Counseling Center is located at 601 Bert Fish Drive, across the street from Health Services. The Center provides individual and group counseling, consultation, outreach, and emergency services. The Center deals with issues such as relationships, stress, life choices, substance use, adjustment, family concerns, eating, learning, self esteem and others. Counseling is confidential and does not become part of the student's University record. The Counseling Center houses a self-help library of books, pamphlets, and audio tapes. Testing services and information are also provided through the Center (GRE, LSAT, MAT, Career, etc.) Please contact 822-8900 for an appointment or more information.

CROSS CULTURAL CENTER

Stetson University affirms that women and men of diverse racial, ethnic, sexual, religious, cultural and socioeconomic backgrounds are fundamental to the process of education. Thus, the Cross Cultural Center (CCC) contributes to the creation of a campus environment that respects and supports diversity and inclusiveness at Stetson. The CCC provides information, resources, programs and services that reflect both academic and co-curricular education that assists in both student and professional development. The CCC also serves as a vehicle to advocate diversity issues, employ community outreach and retain diverse students. All members of the campus community are encouraged to visit, participate and get involved in the programs and activities offered by the Cross Cultural Center (CCC).

HOLLIS CENTER

The Hollis Center is the central hub for co-curricular activities at Stetson University. The wellness and recreation facility houses a fitness room, aerobics/dance studio, wood floored gymnasium, game room, outdoor pool, juice bar, student lounge, classroom and instructional kitchen as well as a resource room and the offices of CSA, Intramural Sports and the Department of Student Activities. All of the resources of the Hollis Center combine to make it the center of student activity on campus.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Stetson has one of the most comprehensive intramural programs of any school its size in the country. Over two-thirds of the student body participates in a wide variety of men's, women's and co-ed intramural activities. Sports include flag football, basketball, soccer, indoor volleyball, sand volleyball, softball, dodgeball, racquetball, indoor soccer, ping pong, swimming, tennis, bowling, and ultimate frisbee. Various teams are established from residence halls, fraternities, sororities, and other campus organizations. Intramural Sports also sponsors special events including a variety of games and tournaments. The Intramural Sports Office is located in the Hollis Center, Room 138.1, on-campus extension is 7231.

JUDICIAL AFFAIRS

In any society, large or small, where people live in a community, there must be certain rules established to guarantee the safety, rights and freedom of all concerned. This is also true of Stetson University, a community that acknowledges the existence of both rights and responsibilities and is dedicated to personal and academic excellence. Community members are individually and collectively responsible for their behaviors and fully accountable for their actions.

The University does not exist as a haven for those who wish to escape the responsibilities imposed by federal, state and/or municipal law. The University will cooperate fully with law enforcement and other agencies in the enforcement of criminal law on campus. A student who has or is alleged to have committed a violation off-campus and whose case is being adjudicated in a public court or hearing is not guaranteed immunity from further review and/or action by the University.

University student judicial proceedings are administered by the Dean of Students. The office of the Dean of Students is located in Room 201 of the Carlton Union Building. Any student, professional staff, or faculty may submit to the Student Judicial Officer charges against any student believed to be in violation of any University regulation concerned with personal behavior, academic honesty, traffic and security, or residence hall policy.

The Student Judicial Council serves as a link between the University administration and students, to provide students with the opportunity to become actively involved in the educational disciplinary process. Council members also serve as members of the University Traffic Board. A student's alleged violation of University policy or the Code of Conduct may be considered by the Council for adjudication. The Council, believing in the existence of higher ideals, endeavors to develop a sense of responsibility and a higher standard of conduct in each Stetson student. The Council consists of twelve (12) undergraduate students: three (3) female and three (3) male seniors; two (2) female and two (2) male juniors; and one (1) female and one (1) male sophomore. Members are selected during the spring semester for a one (1) academic year term according to the rules of the Council Constitution. No member may serve more than three consecutive years on the Council and any nonacademic organization shall not have representation of more than three (3) members on the Council.

Students found in violation of the University's established policies or Student Code of Conduct face varying degrees of disciplinary sanctions. Judicial procedures of the University are explained in detail in the Student Code of Conduct printed in this Handbook.

RESIDENTIAL LIFE

Stetson University prides itself on being a residential University. Approximately 1,500 undergraduate students reside on campus in University facilities. Stetson is concerned not only with the formal education of its students but also with their total development as persons. The residence hall program contributes to this effort toward personal growth and development.

The University desires to provide housing of the highest possible quality at a reasonable rate. Residence halls and Greek housing are staffed with student advisors who are chosen and trained by the staff of the Vice President for Administration. The residential life staff is committed to working with students in developing a sense of community conducive to academic and personal growth through programming, advising, and acquainting students with the total college experience.

Residential Life's relationship with students is based on the assumption that residents are adults, capable of initiating reasonable decisions to ensure their own rights and to respect the rights of others. Freedom, self-direction and responsibility are emphasized.

For additional information explaining the residential life program, please refer to the Residential Life Guidebook located in the back of this Handbook.

STUDENT HEALTH SERVICE

Stetson University provides a professionally staffed Student Health Service (SHS) which is located across from the Hollis Center. The SHS operates as a primary outpatient clinic. The professional staff includes the University Physician, certified College Health nurse Director, three registered nurses, and a consulting pharmacist. The SHS is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Students are seen on a walk-in basis by the nurse, but the Physician is seen by appointment. This includes on-campus, commuter, part-time, and graduate students. Examination, treatments and discussion with students are considered privileged medical information. Student medical records are treated with the confidentiality afforded by law and ethical standards.

Students are required to complete a medical history record, including documentation of immunizations for Measles and Rubella prior to registration. The Hepatitis B and Meningitis vaccines are recommended.

It is the responsibility of the student to contact professors regarding classes missed due to illness. Verification of visits to the SHS is provided. The nature of the illness and treatment provided are confidential and will not be released without the permission of the student.

While visits to the SHS are included in the General Fee paid in connection with registration for classes, students are charged for certain supplies, medication, and laboratory tests.

Students should be familiar with their individual type of medical insurance regarding benefits and limitations and should have their insurance and prescription card with them. Students should understand that the University does not automatically provide medical insurance. A medical insurance plan is offered through the office of Human Resources and may be purchased by the student.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The Stetson University mission to educate is fulfilled through a partnership involving curricular and co-curricular programs. The Student Activities program is a vital part of the University's mission. Student organizations are an essential part of the University and the Student Activities program.

The primary role of student organizations at Stetson University is to provide students with opportunities (1) to enhance the University's mission to educate, (2) to meet specific student needs, (3) to broaden their social and leadership skills, (4) to encourage spiritual growth and a sense of moral and social responsibility, and (5) to provide an avenue for campus and community service. In these ways, organizations provide a means through which the University clarifies its long-range goals, and students participate directly in programs that enrich campus life.

As a part of the role which student organizations play in the education process, organizations provide students with opportunities to explore new ideas and leadership roles, and to engage occasionally in the open debate of controversial issues. Students are allowed to succeed, to fail, to argue, to reason and to discover new truths. Students are taught how to live with others in an open spirit of freedom, compromise, and mutual respect. (www.stetson.edu/offices/student\_life)

Greek Life

Greek-letter organizations have traditionally assumed an active role in contributing to the cultural, educational, and social life of the campus in providing leadership opportunities for students. At Stetson University, students have the opportunity to affiliate with six national sororities and seven national fraternities. At Stetson University, sororities and fraternities are involved in educational programs, community service, and leadership development, in addition to providing a strong bond of friendship among those invited to affiliate with the organizations. Greek-letter organizations are an exciting part of University life. Fraternities and sororities hold formal membership recruitment drives in the Fall (October) for all students.

Greenfeather

Every fall, Stetson students have their own community service fund drive. "Greenfeather Week" involves many students who come together to raise funds by participating in a variety of events: Air Waves, (a Lip Sync contest), a Rock-A-Thon, Yard Sale, Olympics, Twister and many other activities. Annually students raise over ten thousand dollars to share with Volusia County, DeLand community service agencies, and charity organizations.

Stetson Weekend (Homecoming)

Each year, students work closely with the Office of Alumni Relations and the Department of Student Activities to organize Stetson Weekend - a weekend of activities that welcome alumni back to campus. An abundance of special entertainment, athletic events, and numerous receptions and banquets are all places that students and alumni can bridge the generation gap and share their Stetson experiences. To volunteer, call the Meadows Alumni House, extension 7481.

Family Weekend

Each year families of current Stetson students from all parts of the country come on campus to participate in a weekend of activities. Emphasis is placed upon providing opportunities for families to meet and visit with faculty and administration and "to become acquainted" with the campus. Join us for a weekend full of great events including the President's reception, the traditional picnic, and special entertainment on Saturday night.

Student Government Association (SGA)

The principle avenue for student participation in University governance is through the Student Government Association (SGA). It is composed of two main bodies, the Student Senate and the Executive Cabinet. SGA is representative of the entire student body through senators from the residence halls, the commuter population, and campus organizations.

The Student Government works to have an influence on policy decisions that directly impact the student body, and acts as the true voice of the students. SGA meetings are open to all students, and those interested in obtaining more information about the organization are invited to stop by the SGA Office in CUB Room 206.

Council for Student Activities (CSA)

The Council for Student Activities (CSA) is the organization responsible for providing entertainment events and programs for the Stetson student body. Also known as E2E or Escape to Entertainment, CSA programming includes on-campus concerts, comedians, coffeehouse shows, novelty acts, lecturers, off-campus trips to local attractions and shows, and campus-wide events like Spring Fling. Their mission is entertainment for everyone. CSA is composed of eight students hired by the Department of Student Activities to research and plan these events throughout the academic year. CSA strives to provide quality, diverse entertainment that reaches as broad a range and as many Stetson students as possible.

CSA is responsible for gathering programming ideas from the student body and coordinating the efforts of volunteers for on-campus events. If you would like to be in on the action, contact CSA at x. 7225 or csa@stetson.edu. For the latest information on campus events, visit the website at <http://csa@stetson.edu>. CSA also serves as a ticket outlet for Universal Escape, Florida, providing discount tickets for Universal Studios and Islands of Adventure.

Past CSA events:

ORIENTATION (FOCUS)

Fall Orientation Program, FOCUS, is the responsibility of the Office of the Dean of Students. FOCUS is designed to help new students have a successful transition into the University. In addition to the orientation activities, each new student is assigned a FOCUS Advisor, an upperclass student, who assists the students in their academic planning and social adjustment at Stetson. The FOCUS staff is selected each spring to serve for the following year.

REQUIREMENT FOR STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS:

RECOGNITION - All student organizations must be approved by the University in order to be officially recognized. Groups must have a Charter, a set of officers, a list of members, a statement of purpose, and a program of activities.

RESTRICTIONS - The University recognizes the legal right of students to organize and to speak in an environment supportive of an open exchange of ideas. Nonetheless, the University does not allow organizations on campus which deny human rights of other individuals, which disrupt orderly University processes, or which attempt to do psychological or physical harm to others.

PROCEDURE - In order to qualify as a recognized organization at Stetson University, the following must be accomplished:

1. The group seeking recognition must submit to the Department of Student Activities a constitution with the following information:
  - a. Name of organization
  - b. Purpose of organization
  - c. Membership eligibility
  - d. List and description of officers and duties
  - e. List of committees and their functions
  - f. Provisions for amendments to the constitution
  - g. Current membership list
  - h. Name of organization's advisor
2. Organizations must also submit a Completed Organization Application Form to include the following information to the Department of Student Activities :
  - a. Roster of charter members
  - c. List of short and long range goals for the organization
  - d. Name of Faculty Advisor and his or her statement of consent to serve in an advisory capacity

When all of the above obligations have been fulfilled, copies of all materials will be sent to the Campus Life Committee chair at least one week prior to the next meeting in order to be added to the agenda. The Organization President will be notified of the date, time and location of this meeting, at which he or she and at least one representative of the organization must be present.

The final recommendation of the Campus Life Committee will be sent to the Organization President, Vice President for Administration, and the Department of Student Life.

Stetson University recognizes the legal right of persons to assemble and to speak and the significant role free speech and academic freedom play in the life of a university. Student organizations, however, do not speak for or represent the University, nor are such views or activities necessarily promoted or condoned by the University.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Listed are the officially recognized organizations for the 2003-2004 academic year. Each student organization is responsible for completing a registration Renewal Form with the Department of Student Activities no later than the end of the 3rd week of the fall semester of each year, declaring the intention to function for the current academic year. Organizations failing to do this will forfeit the right to use University facilities, receive University funds, and be represented in student publications such as the student newspaper.

DELAND, FL 32723

The intra-campus mail facilities are only for official University business. Solicitation by non-University organizations and individuals or by persons affiliated with the University but acting on their own behalf for personal financial gain shall not be conducted through these facilities. Mail pieces moving into the campus from the United States Postal Service shall not be governed by solicitation provisions.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

Stetson has a variety of student religious groups on campus. These include the Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM), Canterbury House (Episcopal), Catholic Campus Ministry (CCM), Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA), Intervarsity Christian Fellowship (IV), Muslim Student Association (MSA), the Stetson University Gospel Choir, Wesley House (WH) (Methodist), and Young Life. Cooperative programs include musical concerts, "Oxfam" week, the Yule Log Lighting, and other special events.

In addition to on-campus activities, students are encouraged to become involved in the congregation or faith community of their choice in the DeLand area.

STUDENT I.D. CARD

All students registered for classes are required to obtain a valid University ID card. This card will be your access to certain buildings on campus at designated times. The ID card will hold your meal option information for use in the Commons and Hat Rack and other designated areas. It will get you admission to University activities and discounts at some local merchants within the community. Your ID card is as important as your credit card or driver license is please take very good care of it. If lost or stolen report it immediately to the ID/M meal Card office located in the Commons or call 386-822-7784. Replacement for lost or forgotten cards will cost 10.00 per card payable either by cash or flex dollars. Damaged cards will be replaced at no charge when turned into the ID office.

STUDENT FINANCIAL PLANNING

The Office of Student Financial Planning is dedicated to responding to the needs of our students, faculty, administration, alumni and community. We are committed to assisting students achieve their educational goals by providing information on the various options available to finance their education at Stetson University.

Students may qualify to receive assistance from two main programs: talent-based scholarships, which are based on a student's academic performance, as well as athletic or music ability; and need-based assistance, which is awarded on the basis of a family's resources determined by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Although there is a great variety of need-based financial assistance programs, they fall into three major categories; grant programs, student loan programs, and student employment programs. In addition, Stetson offers long-term borrowing opportunities and monthly payment plans to assist students and their families.

The State of Florida provides several forms of financial assistance for eligible state residents. State scholarship and grant programs exist for students of various academic abilities and financial need levels. These programs are coordinated by the Office of Student Financial Assistance (OSFA), Florida Department of Education.

For further information about financial assistance programs available at Stetson, please contact the Office of Student Financial Planning in Griffith Hall. Important information about financial aid is also located in the 2003-2004.

STUDENT ACCOUNTS

Tuition and Fees

For the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Music, and the School of Business Administration, see the Bulletin.

Meal Charges

After semester meal plans are fixed (see academic calendar for last day to change meal plan selections), students may not charge additional meal points to their student account. After that date, students may only purchase additional meal points with cash, by check, or by credit card (Visa, MasterCard or Discover).

Special Charges

New students pay an orientation fee of $50. There is a late registration fee of $25.

Student Billing

Undergraduate students taking 9 or more credit hours in the fall or spring semesters will be billed at the full-time semester rate. Students who take 8 or fewer credit hours in the fall or spring semesters will be billed per credit hour, as will graduate and post-graduate students. Tuition assessments will be based on the student's course load as of the last day of the add/drop period, excluding full withdrawals. The last day to drop a course without financial penalty is specified in the Academic Calendar. The bill must be paid in full before registration unless other arrangements have been made with the Office of Student Accounts. The University accepts cash, personal checks, Visa or Mastercard. In addition, an interest-free installment plan through Key Bank is available with automatic approval. To activate the installment plan, an application from Key Bank, including a $75 fee, must be submitted in advance of registration. Application forms are available from Admissions, Financial Planning, and the Office of Student Accounts. All accounts must be paid in full for a student to receive a diploma or request a transcript.

Student Withdrawal and Dropped Courses

Students officially withdrawing from their entire course load during the first half of a fall or spring semester will receive a prorated tuition, fees, and housing credit as follows:

- * on or before the first day of classes —100 percent credit
- * after the end of the first day of classes, but on or before 10 percent of the term has lapsed—90 percent credit
- * after 10 percent, but on or before 25 percent of the term has elapsed — 50 percent credit
- * after 25 percent, but on or before 50 percent of the term has elapsed — 25 percent credit after 50 percent of the term has elapsed — no credit

The Meal Plan will be refunded according to usage.

Important Refund Dates for Fall and Spring, 2003-2004

Fall Semester 2003

Refund from To

100%	August 20
90%	August 21	August 28
50%	August 29	September 15
25%	September 16	October 13

Spring Semester 2004

Refund From To

100%	January 13
90%	January 14	January 22
50%	January 23	February 6
25%	February 7	March 10

In the summer term, students who withdraw within the first week will receive a tuition and residence hall refund of 50 percent. After one week, no refunds will be made.

Please note that any amount credited under this section will be applied first to any unpaid charges on the student's account. Students receiving federal assistance should read Return of Federal Funds above.

No adjustments - other than those described above - are made for any fees. Any appeal regarding withdrawals or drop refunds should be directed to the Vice President for Finance.

Courses dropped on or before the last day of the add/drop period, excluding official withdrawals, are credited at 100 percent if the student is billed on a per credit hour basis.

No refund is given for courses dropped after the add/drop period. Note carefully that this schedule for financial adjustment does not coincide with the schedule for dropping of class registration for academic record purposes.

PUBLIC SAFETY AND TRAFFIC

Public Safety reports within Facilities Management and is located at 405 N. Amelia Avenue. It is open 24 hours a day and provides protection and services to the campus community. Officers are on duty 24 hours a day, seven (7) days a week, 365 days a year and aid with the enforcement of federal, state, and local statutes and University regulations. Objectives include crime prevention, safety, emergency services, and traffic and parking management.

A high priority is placed on prevention with patrols and surveillance directed toward this end. Training and information sessions are regularly offered to members of the Stetson community.

Public Safety services include:

Emergency Phones - There are twenty-five(25) emergency telephones at strategic locations throughout campus. They can be recognized by the blue light on top. To use, simply press the button and tell us your emergency. Public Safety will automatically know your location, and will dispatch appropriate assistance.

Escorts - Public Safety provides after dark escorts upon request. To receive an escort, call Ext. 7300, stop by the Public Safety office, or use one of the twenty-one emergency phones on campus.

Motorist Assistance - Public Safety officers can assist you with dead batteries. Call Ext. 7300 for help.

Lost and Found - Public Safety serves as the central Lost and Found for the campus.

Property Identification - If you have valuables you wish to identify with your driver's license or social security number, Public Safety has engravers available for you to borrow.

Vehicle Registration - All motor vehicles operated by students, faculty, and staff must be registered with Public Safety within five (5) days after being brought to campus. This includes full-time, part-time, day, evening, summer, and commuting students and full-time and part-time faculty/staff members. Failure to register a vehicle will result in a non-registration citation. Vehicles include, but are not limited to: automobiles, vans, trucks, motorcycles, and mopeds. Utility trailers and recreational vehicles are not permitted to be parked on campus at any time.

Concerning Vehicle Registration - An accumulation of four (4) traffic citations for any violation will result in the vehicle being towed at the owner's expense. Accumulations of (8) traffic citations will result in parking privileges being rescinded.

Parking - Parking is permitted in designated parking areas only.

Bicycles - All bicycles on campus must be registered with Public Safety. The registration of bicycles is required for two reasons:

1. Better control of bicycle parking and assistance in locating the owner, if possible, when specific violations require impoundment.
2. To aid in the prevention of theft and assistance in recovering the bicycle should a theft occur. When registering your bicycle, please bring the bicycle to the Public Safety office. There is no fee charged for bicycle registration.

For complete rules and regulations governing parking and traffic, please refer to A Guide to Traffic and Parking Regulations" issued with your vehicle registration.

GENERAL UNIVERSITY POLICIES

POLICY ON HAZING

Stetson University believes that involvement in student organizations greatly enhances the development of college students. An organization's member educational program, if developed and conducted in an atmosphere of mutual respect with social and moral responsibility, can contribute much to the student's total education. In keeping with this principle, and in view of the possibility of abuses by student organizations at Stetson and university campuses throughout the country, Stetson University has defined hazing as "any action taken or situation created intentionally, on or off the University campus, by students or off-campus individuals to produce physical discomfort, embarrassment, harassment, or ridicule." Any student organization that is found in violation of this policy will be subject to a review of its continued functioning by the Vice President for Administration at which time appropriate action of the most serious kind will be taken.

STUDENT ADMINISTRATIVE RECORDS

There are a number of offices on campus where student records are housed. If you wish to review your records, please make an appointment with the appropriate office.

- (1) OFFICIAL ACADEMIC RECORDS - All records pertaining to academic information such as grades, transcripts, etc., are housed in the Registrar's Office.
- (2) PERSONAL RECORDS - The official personal file is housed in the Department of Residential Life and Judicial Affairs. Personal letters, housing information, and a running account of the student's life at Stetson are contained in these files.
- (3) JUDICIAL RECORDS - All student discipline information is housed in the Office of Student Judicial Affairs separate from your personal records described above.
- (4) MEDICAL RECORDS - All health forms and medical records are housed in the Student Health Service.
- (5) CAREER DEVELOPMENT RECORDS - Students are encouraged to work closely with the Office of Career Services beginning in their freshmen year to develop a resume. A resume data base is maintained for students who participate in this service.
- (6) COUNSELING AND TESTING - Records which contain test scores and information of a counseling and guidance nature are housed in the Counseling Center.
- (7) FINANCIAL AID - Students who have applied for financial aid have a file which is housed in the Office of Student Financial Planning.
- (8) STUDENT ACCOUNTS - Information concerning each student's financial account with the University is housed in the Office of Student Loans and Billing

BUCKLEY AMENDMENT

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, is informally known as "The Buckley Amendment". This is intended to provide students and parents greater access to and control over information contained in educational records. Every institution receiving federal funds of any type must comply with the law. The law stipulates that each institution is responsible for making its students aware of the law and its various ramifications.

DEFINITION OF STUDENT - A student is one currently enrolled or who has previously enrolled.

DEFINITION OF RECORD - Within 45 days of receiving a request, colleges must allow students to inspect their "educational records" which are defined broadly to include "records, files, documents, and other material which (1) contain information directly related to a single student; and (2) are maintained by a college or by a person acting for a college".

CONFIDENTIAL LETTERS AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION - Students are not guaranteed access to financial information furnished in the past or future by their parents, nor to confidential letters of evaluation which have found their way into records prior to January 1, 1975. As to such letters received after 1975, the law allows the student to waive his/her right of access if the letters have to do with admission, employment or honors, if the letters are used only for those purposes and if the student is told, on his/her request, the names of all letter writers. No student or applicant may be required to execute a waiver; but an unsuccessful applicant, waiver or no, has no right to inspect all or any of the file accumulated in his/her case.

EDUCATIONAL RECORDS NOT COVERED BY THE BUCKLEY AMENDMENT - FERPA II defines certain other material as falling outside the definition of "educational records" and thus not (so far as Federal law is concerned) open to inspection by parents or students. Such materials are: a) the records about students made by teachers and administrators for their own use and not shown to others; b) campus police records, under certain circumstances; c) employment records for college employees who are not current students; d) records about college students or those over 17 years old "created or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional" acting or assisting in such capacity, for treatment purposes, and which are available only to persons providing such treatment, and/or as covered by Florida Statutes.

PROCEDURES FOR CHALLENGE OF RECORDS

Section 1. When any material is placed in the educational records (as defined by FERPA II) that makes an unfavorable statement about him/her, the student shall be notified of the filing within one week of the action. It is understood that the regular grade report is considered adequate notification.

Section 2. Upon notification of the placement of unfavorable material in educational records, the student shall be informed of his/her right to challenge the content of the material or the placement of the material. Moreover, the student shall be informed of his/her ultimate right to place documents on his/her behalf with the educational records challenged.

Section 3. The Challenge Board for hearings upon objections to the filing of materials in educational records shall consist of two administrators, two faculty members, and two students chosen by the University President. No member of the Challenge Board may have any direct or indirect interest in the outcome of the hearing.

Section 4. The Challenge Board shall adhere to the procedures utilized by administrative disciplinary boards so long as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of Title 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 99.21.

What Kinds of Information About a Student May be Released, To Whom, and Under What Conditions?

DIRECTORY INFORMATION - Such information may be unconditionally released to the whole world, without the consent of the student, unless the student has specifically asked that his/her prior consent be obtained. "Directory Information" includes a student's name, campus and home address, and telephone listing, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and the most previous educational institution attended by the student.

ACCESS WITHOUT STUDENT CONSENT - FERPA II expands the list of people who may have access to a student's actual record (or to receive personally identifiable information contained therein) without a student's consent.

Teachers, administrators and the like (in the same institution) may look at the record if they have a "legitimate educational interest".

Colleges may transfer information: a) to other educational institutions in which the student intends "or seeks" (new) to enroll (though the student must be given a copy of the record, if he/she wishes, and an opportunity to challenge it); b) to enumerated public officials (like the Comptroller General of the United States); and c) "in connection with a student's application for, or receipt of, financial aid".

Five new categories of recipients are: 1) state and local officials to whom state law in effect on November 19, 1974, required information to be reported. This presumably was added in recognition of the common statutory requirement that certain kinds of infectious diseases, gunshot wounds, and the like be reported to public authorities; 2) organizations like ETS and CEEB in connection with "developing, validating, or administering predictive tests, administering student aid programs, and improving instruction", but such organizations must not show the personally identifiable information to outsiders and must ultimately destroy it; 3) "accrediting organizations in order to carry out their accrediting functions,"; 4) parents of a student who is a dependent for income tax purposes (the HEW regulations, when issued, should make clear when a college may reasonably assume that a student is an income tax dependent); 5) "appropriate persons" in the case of health and safety emergencies, with the details left for enunciation in HEW regulation.

Other than in the exceptions just listed, or in the case of directory information or in responding to judicial process, a college may not release "personally identifiable information in educational records" or allow anyone access to those records, unless the student has given his/her written consent "specifying records to be released, the reasons for such release, and to whom", and a copy of the released records is furnished to the student.

JUDICIAL PROCESS - If the college is responding to a court order or subpoena, it is under no requirement to give a student a copy of the materials furnished, but it must notify him/her "of all such orders or subpoenas in advance of compliance therewith". It is to be presumed that the HEW regulations will require only reasonable notification efforts by a college before the due date of a subpoena.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION - If you do not want your grades sent to your home address, you need to come by the Office of the Registrar to execute the necessary forms. If you do not want "Directory Information" released, you should come by the Office of Campus Life and execute the necessary forms.

If you do not wish any organization to which you belong, such as a fraternity or sorority, to have access to your grades, it is necessary for you to sign a statement to this effect in the Office of Campus Life.

If you need further information concerning the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, please feel free to come by the Office of Campus Life for assistance.

The University reserves the right to withhold grades, transcripts, and diplomas in cases of delinquent accounts.

STETSON UNIVERSITY ALCOHOL POLICY

Stetson University is an educational institution dedicated to a strong academic program and to providing a caring community. The University strives to help its students become self-directed, responsible citizens. Thus, the University's alcohol policy is to assist in creating a campus environment where students have the opportunity to learn how to deal responsibly, both individually and socially, with alcoholic beverages.

Stetson University neither encourages nor condones the consumption of alcoholic beverages. Thus, members of the Stetson University community who are of legal drinking age and who choose to consume alcoholic beverages are expected to do so responsibly and in consideration of the consequences to self, others, and the community-at-large. The University recognizes, however, that many undergraduate students are below the legal drinking age and that there are serious health risks and behavioral problems associated with abuse of alcohol in the collegiate environment. Therefore, all members of the campus community are expected to recognize the potential for alcohol abuse and that such abuse is absolutely at variance with the mission of the University. The University has established educational programs and resources to complement the policies and guidelines related to the consumption of alcohol on campus. Persons who infringe upon the rights of others or who conduct themselves in an inappropriate manner which is caused by, or can be shown to be related to the consumption of alcohol, shall be held accountable for their actions, and subject to disciplinary and/or criminal action.

The regulations and practices governing the use of alcoholic beverages apply to all members of the Stetson University community. The primary responsibility for knowing and abiding by the provisions of the University's alcoholic beverage policy rests with each individual.

I. Legal Requirements Concerning the Use of Alcohol

Members of the Stetson University community are subject to the alcoholic beverage laws of the State of Florida and the City of DeLand, County of Volusia. Public intoxication (appearing in a public place under the influence of alcohol or any other substance to the degree that he/she may endanger her/himself or others) is prohibited.

A. Drinking Age Laws

1. Statute 562.11 (1a & 2) - Selling, giving, or serving alcoholic beverages to persons under age 21; misrepresenting or misstating age or age of another to induce licensee to serve alcoholic beverages to persons under 21; penalties.

It is unlawful for any person to sell, give, serve, or permit to be served alcoholic beverages to a person under 21 years of age or to permit a person under 21 years of age to consume said beverages on licensed premises. Anyone convicted of a violation of the provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, or s. 775.083. It is unlawful for any person to misrepresent or misstate his or her age or the age of any other person for the purpose of inducing any licensee or his agents or employees to sell, give, serve, or deliver any alcoholic beverages to a person under 21 years of age.

2. Statute 562.111 - Possession of alcoholic beverages by persons under age 21.

It is unlawful for any person under the age of 21 years to have in his or her possession alcoholic beverages. Convicted violators are guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

3. Statute 768.125 - Liability for injury or damage resulting from intoxication.

A person who sells or furnishes alcoholic beverages to a person of lawful drinking age shall not thereby become liable for injury or damage caused by or resulting from the intoxication of such person, except that a person who willfully and unlawfully sells or furnishes alcoholic beverages to a person who is not of lawful drinking age or who knowingly serves a person habitually addicted to the use of any or all alcoholic beverages may become liable for injury or damage caused by or resulting from the intoxication of such minor or person.

B. Open Container Laws

1. City Ordinance Sec. 3-15(c). Package store sales and congregation on premises by consumers.

It shall be unlawful for any person to consume and for any person to carry in any cup, can or any other open or unsealed container any alcoholic beverage on the streets, sidewalks, parks, and alleys within the city. The city manager, upon specific written request, may designate specific areas of city parks, times and dates where alcoholic beverages may be consumed.

2. City Ordinance Sec. 3-16 (1)&(3). Open containers in motor vehicles.

It is the policy of the City of DeLand that the consumption of alcoholic beverages while driving or riding in a motor vehicle is prohibited. No person shall drink from or have in his/her possession any open container containing any alcoholic beverage or any mixture containing an alcoholic beverage while in or on a motor vehicle, whether moving or stopped upon any highway. Violators of these city ordinances may be subject to fine, imprisonment or both.

II. University Policy

- A. Stetson University prohibits the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of alcoholic beverages by students or employees on its campus.
- B. Stetson University permits persons of legal drinking age or older to possess and consume alcoholic beverages on its campus subject to all federal, state and local laws and subject to the guidelines for alcohol use which have been established by the University.
- C. No alcoholic beverages shall be sold on the Stetson University DeLand campus.
- D. No University group, program, or organization shall accept sponsorship or endorsement for an event or program from a company that identifies itself as a manufacturer or distributor of alcoholic beverages. University sponsored publications that accept advertising from business entities that sell alcoholic beverages (e.g., restaurants, supermarkets, etc.) shall ensure that such advertising does not refer, either through generic description or product trade names, to such beverages.

- E. The possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages shall be permitted in the following areas under the applicable guidelines referred to in Section H below:
  - 1. Private rooms of students of legal drinking age residing in University residential facilities where alcohol consumption is approved.
  - 2. Those approved common chapter areas of Greek houses under the applicable guidelines established by the University.
  - 3. Those areas of the campus that are designated for registered social functions approved by the Vice President for Administration.
  - 4. Alcoholic beverages shall not be possessed or consumed in any outdoor area of the campus nor in any classroom, laboratory, or office.
- F. Stetson University considers students to be adults who are personally responsible for conforming their behavior to state and local laws and to the University's alcohol policy and guidelines. The University respects students' privacy and autonomy, assumes that students will behave legally and responsibly, and will not use inappropriate means to verify compliance with the University's alcohol policy.
- G. When the University learns of violations of law or policy on this campus, specified sanctions will be imposed and recurring violations will be treated with appropriate seriousness.
- H. The University designates certain residential areas as alcohol-free and in those areas no alcohol possession or consumption is permitted.
- I. The University's Alcohol Policy Guidelines, including Residential Facilities Guidelines and Registered Student Social Functions Guidelines, shall govern the specific implementation of this policy. The Guidelines specify disciplinary action for violations of the alcohol policy and sanctions may include suspension or expulsion from the University.

III. Policy Guidelines

In addition to the general policy statements above, the following guidelines/regulations must be observed:

A. Residential Facilities Guidelines

Students of legal drinking age or older who choose to consume alcoholic beverages are expected to maintain conduct that will not interfere with others' rights to privacy, sleep and study within their rooms. Students will also be expected to maintain and abide by all other rights and responsibilities outlined in the Student Code of Conduct. Alcoholic beverages permitted shall be limited to beer, wine and wine coolers; other alcoholic beverages are prohibited. The University will designate certain residential areas as substance-free housing. The following guidelines must be observed in all residential facilities, other than those designated as substance-free:

- 1. Beer, wine and wine coolers may be possessed and consumed, but not sold, in the privacy of student rooms by those residents and their invited guests who are of legal drinking age. No alcohol is permitted in student rooms where both residents are under the legal drinking age. In a roommate pair situation, in which one is of legal age and one is not, the roommate of legal age may be held responsible for any possession and consumption of alcohol within that room.
- 2. Being present in a room where alcohol exists or is being served may be considered a violation of the University's alcohol policy as it pertains to students under the age of 21. Anyone present in a room where a violation of the alcohol policy is taking place may be found responsible for the violation whether or not they are consuming or in possession of an alcoholic beverage.

3. Possession and/or consumption of beer, wine or wine coolers are not permitted in any public areas such as: hallways, balconies, lounges, stairwells, courtyards, community bathrooms or parking lots. All alcohol that is transported through public areas on campus shall be un-opened.
4. Occupancy permitted in a student's room in which alcohol is being consumed shall not exceed eight persons. The door to that room shall be closed at all times during which alcohol is being consumed.
5. The amount of beer, wine and wine coolers permitted in a room shall not exceed twenty-four beverages consisting of any combination of 12-ounce beers, 12-ounce wine coolers and 6-8 ounce bottles of wine.
6. Oversized containers of alcohol are prohibited. Examples include, but are not limited to, kegs, beer balls, etc.
7. Residents are responsible for the actions, conduct and compliance with the policy of the University of their guests at all times.
8. Students shall present a valid Stetson I.D. and a valid drivers license or passport showing date of birth upon request to University officials. Invited guests of students shall also present a valid driver's license or passport showing date of birth upon request of University officials.
9. Games, contests and other activities or paraphernalia designed to encourage rapid and excessive consumption of alcoholic beverages are not permitted.
10. Violations of the alcohol policy shall be handled in accordance with the University judicial process as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct in The Connections Handbook. Alcohol use does not excuse any violations of the Student Code of Conduct.

B. Registered Student Social Functions Guidelines

Only recognized student organizations may sponsor on-campus Socials involving alcohol. All on-campus Socials must be registered with, and approved by, the Department of Student Activities. Students and their invited guests who are of legal drinking age or older may consume alcoholic beverages at registered Socials. Alcoholic beverages permitted shall be limited to beer, wine and wine coolers; other alcoholic beverages are prohibited. Sponsoring organizations have the responsibility to inform their members and guests of state law, local ordinances and all University regulations. Socials including alcohol are prohibited Sunday through Thursdays and during the final two weeks of each academic semester. The following guidelines must be observed:

1. Prior to an organization applying to sponsor a registered Social function where beer, wine or wine coolers may be present, it shall be required that 80% of the membership participate in an alcohol education workshop.
2. All campus Socials are private events and attendance shall be limited to members of the Stetson community and invited guests, unless made more restrictive by the Social sponsor. Each member of the sponsoring organization(s) is limited to one guest not affiliated with the University.
3. Registration forms for Socials involving alcohol must be submitted to the Department of Student Activities by 1:00 p.m. the Friday week preceding the date of the event. All registration forms must be approved by the Director of Student Activities or his/her designee. Registration for Socials shall include completion of the Social Registration Form, which includes provision of a completed guest list. Guest lists (typed, alphabetized and numbered), as well as monitor and server duty schedules, must be turned in no later than 12:00 noon on the Tuesday prior to the event. Guest lists cannot exceed the fire code limitations for the facility in which the event is to take place. The required punch cards and wrist bands will be provided by the Department of Student Activities at the expense of the sponsoring organization(s).
4. All Socials where beer, wine or wine coolers are permitted, will be "bring your own beverage"(BYOB). Those of legal drinking age may bring beer, wine or winecoolers but shall not exceed six 12-ounce beers or four 12-ounce wine coolers or four 6 to 8-ounce bottles of wine per person. Upon entrance to the Social, students must leave all alcohol at the designated serving area.

5. Sponsoring organizations shall designate one secure area with receptacles to hold the beer, wine or wine coolers brought to a Social. The common receptacles shall be the only source for beverages (both alcoholic and non-alcoholic) available for consumption at a Social.
6. Sponsoring organizations shall provide non-alcoholic beverages and food which are easily accessible. Non-alcoholic beverages shall be in prepackaged, single-serving non-glass containers. The amount of non-alcoholic beverages available should exceed the number of people invited to (as per the guest list) the event.
7. Sponsoring organizations shall post at least two signs announcing the state law relating to alcohol use, possession and consumption. Signs shall be provided to the sponsoring organization by the Department of Student Activities. Signs shall be posted at the entrance and the designated serving area. Both signs shall be prominently visible. A schedule of the names and duty times of the monitors and servers shall also be posted at the Social.
8. During Socials in a Greek House, alcohol consumption shall be restricted to the designated Social area and NO alcohol can be consumed in individual member's private residence rooms nor shall guests be allowed in private residential areas during Socials.
9. At least two members of the sponsoring organization shall act as Monitors (as indicated on the Social Registration Form). All social functions are required to have at least one Public Safety Officer acquired through the University Public Safety Department. Sponsoring organizations will be responsible for the cost of the Public Safety Officer. More than 2 Monitors may be required as determined by the characteristics of the particular facility being used. At least one Monitor will be of legal drinking age. Monitors shall be responsible for management of the Social and enforcement of University policies. The Monitors or any Public Safety Officer shall have the right to deny access to the Social to anyone they determine is impaired by alcohol or other drugs. Monitors shall not be impaired by alcohol or other drugs nor shall they consume alcoholic beverages while on duty. Monitors must have undergone an alcohol education workshop designed for monitors.
10. Should the location have more than one exit, the sponsoring organization(s) shall provide one Monitor per exit. Everyone shall enter through the designated main entrance. If a Social is sponsored by two or more organizations, each organization shall be responsible for having a Monitor at the main entrance (in addition to any other Monitors required).
11. Upon entering the Social, members and guests shall present to the Monitor his/her valid Stetson ID and a valid driver's license or passport, showing date of birth. Monitors shall verify the age of everyone entering a Social and have them sign next to their name on the guest log.
12. A wristband shall be affixed by the Monitor to the wrist of any person verified to be 21 or older. Only individuals wearing the designated wristbands shall be permitted to consume alcoholic beverages. Individuals entering the Social with beer, wine or wine coolers will be issued a punch card indicating the name of the individual, the type and amount of alcohol, the date of the event, and the name/theme of the event.
13. At least two members of the sponsoring organization shall act as servers who shall control access to all beverages. Servers must be of legal drinking age who are members of the organization and have undergone an alcohol education workshop designed for servers. Servers shall not be impaired by alcohol or other drugs nor shall they consume alcoholic beverages while on duty. The names and schedule of servers shall be posted at the designated serving area.
14. Servers shall ensure that only guests who are of legal drinking age, as evidenced by a wrist band and possession of a punch card, shall receive alcohol from the designated serving area. The punch card shall be marked appropriately by the server when dispensing the alcohol. When leaving a Social, the punch card must be returned to the Monitor at the entrance door.

15. Only one beer or wine or wine cooler may be served at a time. Servers must not serve alcoholic beverages to anyone they determine is impaired by alcohol or other drugs.
16. The serving of alcoholic beverages shall be discontinued 45 minutes prior to the scheduled end of the Social. Non-alcoholic beverages and food must continue to be made available during this time period.
17. Alcohol may be returned to its owner, unless that person is determined to be impaired by alcohol or other drugs. Left-over alcohol must be discarded by the server in the presence of the Public Safety Officer at the end of the Social.
18. The amount of alcohol disposed of shall be noted on the Post Party Check-Sheet which must be submitted, along with the guest log, punch cards, as well as any extra wristbands, by 9:00 a.m. the next business day to the Department of Student Activities office.
19. Games, contests and other activities or paraphernalia designed to encourage rapid and excessive consumption of alcoholic beverages are not permitted.

IV. Alcohol Sponsorship And Advertising

No University group, program, or organization shall accept sponsorship or endorsement for an event or program from a company that identifies itself as a manufacturer or distributor of alcoholic beverages. University sponsored publications that accept advertising from business entities that sell alcoholic beverages (e.g., restaurants, supermarkets, etc.) shall ensure that such advertising does not refer, either through generic description or product trade names, to such beverages.

V. Judicial Action

The Stetson judicial process is based in the philosophy that judicial matters should be primarily educational in nature. As such, various developmental sanctions are utilized. Yet as in society in general, individuals need to learn from their mistakes. This learning process includes the use of punitive sanctions to complement the educational sanctions imposed upon an individual who chooses to violate University policies. The University has established a guideline for the use of progressive sanctions when dealing with violations of the Alcohol Policy. These sanctions are utilized as a guideline when determining an appropriate response to an incident involving alcohol. Different circumstances could warrant different responses to the behavior. As such, the judicial process allows the University the latitude to impose alternative sanctions should the situation require it.

The following is a model for sanctioning under the University Alcohol Policy. University judicial policies will use this model as a guide in making judicial decisions. Imposition of specific sanctions is at the discretion of the judicial body. Sanctions shall be commensurate with the violation and any aggravating and mitigating circumstances.

Individuals:

An individual reported to be in violation of the alcohol policy will be required to participate in a judicial conference to discuss the effects of that behavior on both himself/herself and on other members of the community. Based on previous disciplinary history, minimal sanctions may include but are not limited to:

Warning: A written notice that the student's behavior violated University regulations.

Reprimand: A letter of disapproval for violation of University regulations that reflects unfavorably on the student or University.

Disciplinary Probation: An encumbrance on the student's good standing during the University. Any subsequent violation of University regulations during probation period may result in separation from the University. A fixed term of probation not less than one semester in length may be specified. If no additional violations of University regulations occur, the student is returned to good standing at the conclusion of the probationary period. The student may be placed on probation for a period of one (1) semester to indefinitely. A student on disciplinary probation is deemed "not in good standing" for a period of time with the University and normally the student will:

1. Forfeit the privilege to represent the University in any intercollegiate event competition, or other manner;
2. Forfeit the privilege of holding an office in any student organization recognized by the University or of any elected or appointed student office or University Community agreement.

Sanctions can include but are not limited to:

- a. Attending the Decision and Choices Workshop;
- b. Attending the Level II Workshop;
- c. Completing Community Service hours;
- d. Undergoing substance abuse assessment (any of the above violations might require the individual to participate in a substance abuse assessment by a qualified agency);
- e. Other sanctions which may be assigned by the Director of Residential Life/Judicial Affairs as deemed necessary.

For Organizations:

Organizations sponsoring socials are responsible for abiding by and enforcing the guidelines outlined in the Alcohol Policy. The president of each organization shall sign a statement for the Department of Student Activities indicating that he/she has thoroughly explained the policy to members of his/her organization. The minimal sanctions for violations of the policy include:

First Violation: Loss of social privileges for up to six school weeks, mandatory participation in an alcohol education program for both the membership and the leadership, a fine of no more than two hundred ($200) dollars or less, notification to an organization's national office (if applicable), the notification to the organization's faculty and/or alumni advisor, and the possible loss of eligibility for student organization funding.

Second Violation: Loss of social privileges for no fewer than six school weeks and not more than twenty school weeks, mandatory participation in an alcohol education program for both the leadership and general membership of the organization, a fine between $200 and $500, and the possible loss of eligibility for student organization funding.

Third Violation: Loss of social privileges for no less than twenty school weeks and no more than one calendar year, mandatory participation in an alcohol education program for both the leadership and general membership of the organization, recommendation to the Office of Student Life for the review of the organization's recognition status, a fine between $200 and $500, and the possible loss of eligibility for student organization funding.

ILLICIT DRUGS

Stetson University has a long-standing policy which prohibits possession, use or distribution of illicit drugs by students and employees on the campus.

Disciplinary proceedings against a student who violates the University policy on illicit drugs will be initiated in accordance with judicial proceedings as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct. When it has been determined that a student has violated this policy, a University judicial body may impose sanctions ranging from written warnings to expulsion from enrollment. Offenses may also be the subject of legal action by civil authorities.

In all cases, the University strives to educate students to the potential harmful effects of substance abuse and to counsel students who seek assistance for substance abuse impairment.

SOLICITATION POLICY

In the interest of maintaining an environment which is consistent with the mission of Stetson University, a "Solicitation, Publicity, and Posting" Policy has been adopted to establish a reasonable time, place, and manner for campus solicitation. Solicitation is defined as any promotion, advertisement or sale of product or services, by non-University individuals, and by those University faculty, staff and students who are acting on their own behalf for personal gain. Solicitation also includes any form of fundraising. Forms of solicitation covered by this policy include but are not limited to the following:

- * posting of flyers, signs, or other forms of advertisement
- * door to door sales (specifically prohibited)
- * staffed displays, sign-ups, or booths
- * fundraisers or charity drives.

All solicitations must be approved by the University through the Student Activities Department.

Non-University Individuals/Organizations.

Non-University individuals/organizations and those persons affiliated with the University but acting on their own behalf or on behalf of a non-university organization desiring to conduct solicitation on the Stetson campus must request permission. Non-University individuals/organizations must be sponsored by a University student organization, department, program, or committee. Information regarding organizations which may sponsor non-University solicitors is available from the Department of Student Activities.

The University reserves the right to require appropriate credit reference from non-University individuals and organizations. Further, the University reserves the right to withhold permission to solicit or to limit the scope or type of solicitation.

University Student Organizations

Student organizations desiring to conduct or sponsor solicitation on campus must follow the solicitation request/registration procedure outlined in this handbook. The solicitation request and registration procedure must be properly completed by the student organization and approved by the appropriate University office prior to solicitation.

Solicitation Request and Registration Procedure

1. Request for approval to conduct solicitation must be made using the Solicitation Request/Registration Form available in the Department of Student Activities in the Hollis Center.
  - * Requests to conduct solicitation in academic or administrative facilities shall be submitted to the Vice President of Finance in Elizabeth Hall, Room 103.
  - * Requests to conduct solicitation in campus residential facilities, Carlton Union Building (CUB) and the Hollis Center shall be submitted to the Department of Student Activities at least seven (7) business days before the solicitation is scheduled to begin.
2. Upon approval of the request, a written permit will be issued indicating:
  - * The name of the sponsoring organization, department or academic unit as well as the sponsoring non-University group or individual (if any).
  - * The designated area in which solicitation is allowed to occur.
  - * The product or service to be sold or advertised.
  - * The purpose for the solicitation activity.
3. The permit must be available for inspection by University officials at all times during the solicitation. A representative of the sponsoring student organization, academic department or programs must be present at all times during the solicitation.
4. Any student organization, academic program or department sponsoring solicitation shall be responsible for ensuring that the non-University group or individual is informed and in compliance with University policies and guidelines at all times.

PUBLICITY AND POSTING POLICY

In the interest of maintaining an environment that is consistent with the mission of the University, the University reserves the right to determine appropriate location and manner of all display materials including goods, posters, banners, backdrops, etc. The University has designated suitable areas in most buildings for the purpose of providing a place for groups and organizations to post respective notices. The purpose of this set of procedures is to outline guidelines for the general posting and distribution of publicity material(s) as well as guidelines for the use of designated places on campus for the posting of said material(s).

Announcements of general information to the student body of the University by recognized student organizations, University departments, programs or committees are the type of material(s) permitted. All other types of announcements will be removed. All display materials must be maintained in the designated display areas.

Guidelines for Recognized Student Organizations

Publicity materials for campus events should not be posted or distributed until approval has been completed (see below for approval procedures). All announcements must indicate the name of the University student organization which is sponsoring the event.

Publicity material(s) must be posted on bulletin boards or other approved areas designated in this policy. Under no circumstances shall any publicity material be placed, written, or painted upon any surface (interior or exterior) including, but not limited to, building columns, trees or shrubs, poles, signs, doors, windows, walls, sidewalks or other campus structures.

Efforts must be made to avoid litter. Distribution by means of accosting individuals, hawking or shouting is strictly prohibited.

All publicity material(s) of student organizations not covered by the specific guidelines set forth in this policy must be approved by the Department of Student Life at least two (2) weeks prior to beginning advertising for the event.

Violations of this policy constitute violations of University policy and will be addressed through appropriate disciplinary channels.

Procedures

Materials distributed on campus by recognized student organizations must be approved by the Department of Student Life. At least one item within a set of posted materials will be kept on file in the Department of Student Activities. Materials may be presented for approval for posting 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m., Monday-Friday, at the Department of Student Life in the Hollis Center.

Printed literature (flyers or posters) other than banners will be limited to a maximum dimension of (20"x25") unless otherwise authorized by the Department of Student Life.

All material will be assigned an expiration date. All posted literature is to be removed by the sponsor within 24 hours of the approved expiration. Materials not removed will become Stetson University property. Groups or individuals violating this policy may be charged the cost associated with removal of the publicity or any damage the publicity may have caused.

The following restrictions apply to the use of banners as publicity:

ALL banners must be approved by the Department of Student Activities in the Hollis Center and may be posted only in approved locations. Approved locations include the Commons, the front of the CUB, and on the library wall. Some locations may be limited and may have additional restrictions. Banners must boldly display the name of the sponsoring student organization.

Additionally, banners posted in the Commons must be: 1) limited to three (3) feet x six (6) feet; and 2) posted for no more than seven (7) consecutive days.

Chalking of sidewalks is permitted only by recognized University organizations receiving prior approval from the Department of Student Life 72 hours prior to proposed action. Chalking may only take place in limited areas of the campus specified by the Department of Student Activities. Chalking request forms are available in the Hollis Center. Handouts may be distributed at meetings and events when the materials are those of the sponsoring organization. No person-to-person distribution of handouts in public places is allowed. Door-to-door solicitation is also prohibited. The intra-campus mail facilities are only for official University business. Solicitations by Stetson University organizations and individuals shall not be conducted through these facilities. Mail pieces moving into the campus from the United States Postal Service shall not be governed by these provisions. Non-University organizations or businesses are encouraged to solicit through "The Reporter" or through the mail moving into the campus from the United States Postal Service. The University reserves the right to remove materials that are improperly posted or circulated. Noncompliance with these procedures will be referred to the Director of Student Life (or designee), and individuals and/or groups who violate these procedures may be subject to University disciplinary action.

Designated Locations For Posting

Carlton Union Building

Up to ten posters per event may be posted in the Carlton Union Building at any given time by any single student organization. Posting may only occur on designated bulletin boards located in and around the Union Building. No posting is allowed on bare walls, columns, windows, doors, etc.

On-Campus Residential Facilities

All publicity material must be posted in the designated areas of each Residence Hall building. All publicity material(s) intended for residential facilities may be subject to approval by the Department of Residential Life. No posting is allowed on bare walls, windows, doors, etc.

Academic Buildings

All publicity must be posted in the designated areas of academic buildings. All publicity material(s) intended for academic buildings may be subject to approval by the appropriate academic dean. No posting is allowed on bare walls, windows, doors, etc.

UNIVERSITY HOUSING POLICY

All Freshmen and Sophomore students are required to live in on-campus housing for the full academic year (Fall and Spring semesters). This requirement applies to students who have earned less than 60 credit hours, are under 21 years of age, are not married and do not reside with immediate family. Students who do not adhere to this policy will receive a reduction in their Stetson-controlled grant/scholarship funds.

Juniors and Seniors, while not required to live in on-campus housing, may also receive a reduction in their Stetson-controlled grant/scholarship funds if they choose to live off campus. The first $1,000 of Stetson-controlled money will be protected. For Freshmen, Sophomore, and Junior students, the reduction may be as much as $2,500. Students who have achieved senior status (earned a minimum of 90 credit hours by the start of the Fall semester) will receive a reduction not to exceed $1,500. Exceptions to this penalty include students who are age 24 or older, married, receiving Faculty/Staff benefits, or residing with immediate family. Students participating in a required university-approved off-campus internship will also be exempt from this policy.

SEXUAL ASSAULT

Stetson University is committed to providing an educational atmosphere in which students can achieve their goals and maximum potential. When students experience sexual assault, their sense of safety and trust are violated which can seriously interfere with their lives and educational goals. Sexual assault is a serious, violent crime which is a flagrant violation of the University's standard of conduct. The University does not tolerate sexual assault, including acquaintance rape, in any form.

Sexual assault (rape) is non-consensual sexual intercourse involving force, manipulation or coercion. It is an act of aggression, violence, and power, and is a felony crime. The assailant can be a stranger, relative, acquaintance, or date. Although usually a crime committed against women, rape can also happen to men.

Examples of sexual assault include, but are not limited to:

- having sexual intercourse with an unwilling person or using threats or physical force to obtain sexual favors; or
- having sexual intercourse with a person who is physically unconscious or asleep; or
- participating in a sex act with someone so under the influence of drugs or alcohol that they are unable to voluntarily consent to the activity.

Use of alcohol or drugs does not diminish the violation.

This policy also covers any other sex-related assault or offense including any form of sexual battery under the criminal statutes of the State of Florida.

Stetson University will pursue disciplinary action when there is reasonable cause to believe the University's regulations against sexual assault have been violated. Further, the University will give timely notification to the university community of a reported incidence of sexual assault. Other related behavior not specifically defined as sexual assault may also result in disciplinary action. Refer to Article II of the Student Code of Conduct for a general listing of prohibited conduct.

Reporting Procedures

The University encourages victim survivors (survivor) to report an attempted or completed sexual assault to the Department of Public Safety (from campus, dial ext. 7300). It is always the survivor's choice whether or not to report a sexual assault, but reporting an assault (or attempted assault) is extremely important for protection of the survivor and the community. Reporting an assault does not mean that the survivor must press criminal charges. However, it begins the process if the survivor decides to press charges later and ensures that the survivor receives counseling and guidance.

Others on campus to whom a survivor of sexual assault may go for assistance include the professional staff of the Counseling Center or Student Health Service and other Campus Life staff members. Once the Department of Public Safety or a Campus Life staff member learns of a sexual assault, these offices will cooperate to provide the survivor with counseling and guidance.

In reporting a sexual assault, the student survivor controls the process. The University will: (1) encourage the survivor to receive crisis counseling and medical attention through the Rape Crisis Center; (2) encourage the survivor to report the incident to the local police and/or the Rape Victim Advocate in the State Attorney's Office; and (3) assist the survivor in receiving counseling and guidance through the Counseling Center.

The Department of Public Safety will, if requested, assist the survivor in notifying local police. If the survivor chooses not to report the incident to local law enforcement, the University must report the incident to the Rape Victim Advocate's Office in keeping with Federal legislation. The survivor will give the University the choice of providing his/her name to the Rape Victim Advocate's office. The University will not provide the survivor's name without the survivor's permission. The Victim Advocate can explain the system and give needed support so that the survivor is comfortable with whatever decision is ultimately reached.

Three important factors for the survivor to remember include: (1) it is critical for a police agency to be informed as soon as possible after the incident so that appropriate steps, such as gathering crucial evidence and information to prove criminal sexual assault, can be taken; (2) Florida State Law prohibits the publishing or broadcasting of information that would identify the victim (survivor) of a sexual offense; and (3) the survivor can decide at any point not to press criminal charges, even if already filed.

Disciplinary Action

Survivors have an option to request that the University initiate a University disciplinary proceeding against a student assailant. Although University disciplinary proceedings do not require that a police report be filed, doing so enables the survivor to consider the full range of responses. The University judicial process administered under the Director of Student Judicial Affairs shall take precedent over any other University committee process when incidents of sexual assault or sexual harassment are reported to the University.

Specific details concerning the disciplinary process are outlined in Article III: Judicial Policies of the Student Code of Conduct as published in the Campus Life Handbook. Disciplinary action against students committing sexual assault is administered by the Director of Residential Life and Judicial Affairs (822-7200). Persons found in violation of sexual assault in a University disciplinary proceeding are subject to disciplinary sanctions which may include suspension or expulsion from the University.

Survivors are under no obligation to pursue disciplinary action by contacting this office. The initial consultation will clarify the disciplinary process and explain the options available to the survivor, as well as review the incident. Crisis counselors or other support persons are welcome and encouraged to accompany the survivor.

During disciplinary proceedings, the survivor and the accused are entitled to the same opportunity to have an advisor present. Further, the survivor will be afforded the opportunity to remain present throughout the disciplinary proceeding, to submit any oral or written statement concerning the incident, to have previous sexual history excluded from the hearing, and to ask questions during the proceeding.

Upon the conclusion of the disciplinary proceeding, both the survivor and the accused shall be informed of the decision.

Options and Resources

Stetson University students who are sexually assaulted have a number of options as well as campus and community resources available to them. Options include assistance in contacting professors and work-study supervisors about absence, etc.; confidential counseling services and/or referral, as well as counseling and guidance for medical treatment; assistance with possible changes in on-campus residential housing assignment and academic class assignment if reasonably available; and assistance in disciplinary proceedings and/or reporting the incident to local police.

Resources include:

- |  |          |
|--|----------|
| 1. Department of Public Safety                       | 822-7300 |
| 2. Director of Residential Life and Judicial Affairs | 822-7200 |
| 3. Student Health Services                           | 822-8150 |
| 4. University Counseling Center                      | 822-8900 |
| 5. Rape Crisis Center (Daytona Beach)                | 258-7273 |
| 6. Rape Victim Advocate (State Attorney Office)      | 239-7710 |
| 7. DeLand Police Department                          | 734-1711 |

It is important to remind students that SEEKING ASSISTANCE from any of these resources DOES NOT OBLIGATE SURVIVORS TO TAKE FURTHER ACTION. However, whether or not a survivor desires to take further action, medical assistance is essential. A physical examination, by a physician of the survivor's choice, will take care of obvious and/or hidden injuries and provide an opportunity for the survivor to discuss with a physician potential pregnancy or communicable disease concerns.

A number of University offices, departments and student organizations offer prevention services and/or programs designed to promote awareness of sexual assault and other sex offenses. Programs and services include crime prevention, Public Safety escort program, emergency telephone system, alcohol awareness, safety orientation for new students, health issues, and communication skills.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY AND PROCEDURES

I SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY:

- A. RATIONALE: Stetson University has established the following policy in order to protect the rights of all Stetson students, faculty, and staff (hereinafter referred to as the "Stetson community") to an environment free from sexual harassment. Stetson's sexual harassment policy and procedures are designed to encourage confidentiality, to protect persons filing grievance complaints from retaliation, and to observe due process.
- B. DEFINITION: Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination that violates Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. The law defines sexual harassment as any unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors or any conduct of a sexual nature when:

- * Submitting to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment or academic decisions;
- * Submitting to such conduct is used as the basis for employment or academic decisions affecting the individual as an employee or student; or
- * Such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or learning environment.

C. BEHAVIOR: The key to making the determination that behavior is sexual harassment is whether the conduct is welcome and whether the conduct is sexual in nature. Sexual harassment may include, but is not limited to:

- * Physical, including unwelcome touching or gesturing
- * Verbal, including unwelcome requests for a date or sexual favors, lewd remarks, or sounds
- * Visual, including unwelcome exposure to sexual photos, cartoons, or drawings.

D. CONSENSUAL ROMANTIC/SEXUAL RELATIONSHIPS: The University has adopted a consensual relations policy which prohibits certain consensual relations (see Consensual Relations Policy)

E. TYPES OF CLAIMS:

1. Quid Pro Quo: This is the demand for sexual favors in exchange for some job or academic benefit (something for something). For example, a supervisor's demand that an employee have sex with him/her in order to get a promotion is quid pro quo harassment.
2. Hostile Environment: This is harassing conduct which unreasonably interferes with an individual's work or creates a hostile, intimidating, or offensive work or learning environment. The "hostile work or learning environment" form of sexual harassment may include offensive language, jokes, gestures, comments, pictures, calendars, or graffiti. In order to determine whether a hostile environment exists, the standard applied by the Sexual Harassment Grievance Council shall be what type of conduct a "reasonable person" would think is offensive, intimidating, or hostile.
3. Acts of Retaliation: This exists when a member of the Stetson community retaliates in any manner against a complainant for reporting sexual harassment. Such an act of retaliation will be processed in the same manner and to the same extent as any other act of sexual harassment.
4. Same Sex Harassment: This occurs when a member of the Stetson community is sexually harassed in the workplace or the academic environment by a person of the same sex. It is the harassing conduct itself, not the motivation or the gender of the people involved, that determines whether sexual harassment amounts to "discrimination because of sex."
5. False Complaints: This occurs when a member of the Stetson community makes an intentionally false accusation of sexual harassment or related retaliation.

II REPORTING COMPLAINTS:

Any member of the University community who feels he/she may have been sexually harassed is strongly encouraged to report the episode(s). In the event of a student-to-student harassment complaint, the complainant will normally follow procedures established by the Office of Campus Life.

1. Reporting of Complaints: Written or oral complaints may be made by persons experiencing harassment or by concerned persons not directly involved. The complainant is encouraged to consult with supervisors, department heads, vice presidents, or deans. On the DeLand campus, the complainant also is encouraged to consult with a member of the Diversity Council or the Women's Council. Said persons have the obligation immediately to forward the complaint to a appropriate Vice President or Academic Dean to facilitate the grievance process.

A. INVESTIGATION, DISPOSITION AND GRIEVANCE:

The investigating of a complaint against faculty or staff, the University's disposition of the matter and the grievance procedure to challenge the decision will follow the guidelines set forth in the University's Faculty and Staff Grievance Procedures. In the event of a student-to-student harassment complaint, the complaint will be investigated by a designated representative(s) from the Office of Campus Life and will follow procedures in the Student Code of Conduct.

B. EDUCATION:

The University shall provide educational opportunities to acquaint all members of the Stetson community with the specific provisions of the Sexual Harassment Policy and Procedures.

FACULTY AND STAFF GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

I. General Policy Statement

Stetson University is committed to the prompt and fair resolution of the concerns of students, faculty and staff. The grievance process described below has been formulated to ensure fairness and consistency in the University's relations with its faculty, staff and students. A separate policy contained within the Student Code of Conduct sets forth procedures for handling charges of misconduct brought by faculty, staff or students, against any student. This Faculty and Staff Grievance Procedure describes the University policy for resolving complaints against faculty and staff, as well as faculty or staff complaints against the University. No person's employment with the University shall be adversely affected in any way as a result of using these procedures, nor shall any retaliatory action taken against a person using these procedures be tolerated.

The purpose of the grievance procedures is to ensure that complaints are resolved internally within the University community in a fair manner. In addition, the procedures in this policy suggest that an immediate attempt takes place to resolve informally all types of grievances at the level at which they occur.

II. Pre-Grievance Informal Resolution

The University will make a good faith effort to seek resolution of a problem informally brought to its attention through discussion and communication with the department or unit involved and with appropriate University officials. The University encourages all faculty, staff and students to attempt an informal resolution prior to initiating the formal grievance procedure.

Faculty, staff and students are encouraged to first meet with their supervisor, Department chair or appropriate University administrator, for an informal discussion of the matter. This discussion should take place within 30 days of the matter's occurrence. (All deadlines within this procedure are calculated as calendar days when school is in session. The time periods may be temporarily suspended during the time school is not in session and during summer session.) Both parties should meet jointly and/or individually with the appropriate administrator in a good faith attempt to resolve the matter in an equitable and professional manner. The appropriate Vice President or Academic Dean may also be included in this informal resolution process. The administrator facilitating the informal resolution attempt will provide to both parties and to the Director of Administrative Services a written summary of the informal discussions and the solution agreed upon, if any. Both parties in the matter should sign the summary statement.

III. Complaint and Fact Finding Process

Should a situation arise in which a dispute is not resolved by less formal means, the aggrieved individual may use the University's Complaint and Fact Finding process as follows:

A. Filing a Written Complaint

Faculty, staff or students bringing complaints against the University or a particular faculty or staff member should initiate a formal written complaint within 45 calendar days of the date on which the aggrieved person became aware of the subject of the complaint or within 45 days of the complainant's receipt of the administrative summary provided at the conclusion of the informal process (see Section II above). The complaint should be filed with either the University Grievance Officer or the Director of Administrative Services.

The written complaint should include:

1. Identification of the University office or individual against whom the complaint is brought;
2. A description of the specific behavior or action giving rise to the complaint;
3. The date or period of time during which the behavior occurred and location of the incident;
4. A description of the steps taken for informal resolution (if any) and the reasons they were unsuccessful;
5. The desired remedy;
6. The name, address, and telephone number of the person making the complaint; and
7. The signature of the person making the complaint.

B. Investigation of Complaint

Upon receiving a formal complaint, the University Grievance Council will be responsible for investigating the complaint. The University Grievance Council will be composed of the Grievance Officer (a tenured faculty member), the Director of Administrative Services, one tenured faculty member (elected by the Faculty Senate in agreement with its by-laws) and one staff member appointed by the President. The faculty member and the staff member serve one year terms and may serve up to five consecutive terms. If the University Grievance Officer, the Director of Administrative Services or the staff member is the object of the grievance, the President will appoint a replacement for that investigation. If the faculty member is the object of the grievance, the Senate Executive Committee will appoint a replacement for that investigation. If a complaint alleges inappropriate conduct or violation of University policies by a faculty member, the Grievance Officer will be the primary investigator. If a complaint alleges inappropriate conduct or violation of University policies by a staff member, the Director of Administrative Services will be the primary investigator. The primary investigator may call upon other members of the University Grievance Council to help conduct an investigation into the complaint. University Counsel shall be available as a resource to the investigator on an as-needed basis.

The investigator will gather all pertinent information through personally interviewing and/or gathering written statements from the complainant, the accused faculty or staff member or representative of the University department (respondent), and any witnesses to the alleged behavior either party wishes to identify or provide.

The investigation may be terminated at any time should the complainant and the University agree in writing upon an informal resolution, and this resolution is accepted by the appropriate Vice President or Academic Dean. However, the appropriate Vice President or Academic Dean may reject the proposed resolution and continue the investigation if the conduct, if proven, would warrant further action against the staff or faculty member by the University.

If the complainant initiates legal action outside of the University community at any time during this procedure (including but not limited to the informal resolution stage, the investigation or at formal hearing), the University has the right to terminate, modify or adjust this procedure.

C. Confidentiality

At every stage of this procedure, information relating to the complaint or the grievance shall be considered confidential. All parties are encouraged to respect the confidentiality of this information and only disclose it to those who have a legitimate and necessary need to know.

D. Report

A written report of the investigation will be produced within 30 days of receiving the complaint. Generally, the investigation report will contain sections on:

- (1) investigation background (what prompted the investigation and a description of the investigation process, including who was interviewed and when);
- (2) identification of University policies implicated by the complaint;
- (3) key factual findings of the investigation, including summaries of relevant information gathered from witnesses; and
- (4) a determination or conclusion about whether the complaint has merit.

The author of the investigation report has the discretion to modify the format of the report. The Grievance Council will approve by majority vote the contents and conclusions of the written investigation report prior to its release.

Reports of the University Grievance Council will be housed in the office of the Director of Administrative Services and will be released in accordance with policies governing confidential personnel records of the University.

IV. DECISION

The investigation report will be given to the appropriate Council (Council of Deans or Council of Vice Presidents) to determine an administrative solution to the complaint, if such an administrative solution is necessary.

The administrative solution may include the entire range of remedies available under University policy. In cases of inappropriate University action in regard to any academic policy or alleged misconduct by a faculty member, the report will be submitted to the Chair of the Council of Deans. In cases of inappropriate University action in regard to any administrative policy or alleged misconduct by a staff member, the report will be submitted to the Chair of the Council of Vice Presidents.

If the person to receive the investigation report is either the respondent or the complainant, the report shall go to the Council of Deans or the Council of Vice Presidents, whichever he or she chairs. Any member who is a respondent or complainant shall recuse himself/herself from receiving the report and making the administrative decision. If the respondent and the complainant include the Chair of the Council of Deans and the Chair of the Council of Vice Presidents, the report shall go to the joint Council of Deans and Vice Presidents. Again, the respondent and the complainant shall recuse themselves from receiving the report and making the administrative decision.

At this time, the Council of Deans, the Council of Vice Presidents or the Joint Council may attempt to resolve the dispute informally. If this attempt at informal resolution is unsuccessful, the appropriate Council will then prepare and distribute a written statement of the administrative decision to the complainant and to the accused faculty or staff member or University office within 15 days of his/her receipt of the report from the University Grievance Council. Either party may challenge the administrative decision, in writing, within 15 calendar days. The challenge and request for a formal hearing must be submitted in writing to either the Chair of the Council of Deans or the Vice President for Administration. The matter then will be referred to a formal hearing.

V. FORMAL GRIEVANCE HEARING

When there is alleged misconduct by a faculty or staff member or an alleged inappropriate application of a University policy, and the complainant or respondent wants to challenge the investigation results and/or decision, that matter may be referred to a formal hearing. For a faculty member accused of misconduct or the alleged inappropriate application of a University policy affecting a faculty member, the formal hearing will be conducted by the Tenure, Grievance and Academic Freedom Committee. For a staff member accused of misconduct or the alleged inappropriate application of University policy affecting a staff member, that formal hearing will be conducted by the Staff Grievance Committee. The Tenure, Grievance and Academic Freedom Committee will be elected as prescribed in 3.4.2 of the Faculty Senate by-laws and the chairperson will be elected annually by the Committee. The Staff Grievance Committee will be appointed annually by the Vice President of Administration who will select one member as its chairperson. Staff Grievance Committee members shall serve one year renewable terms.

The Tenure, Grievance and Academic Freedom Committee and Staff Grievance Committee shall each be composed of seven members. For a particular hearing, a panel of five members shall be selected randomly from the pool of seven members. The grievant and the other individual party (either the complainant or the respondent who has not grieved the decision by the University Grievance Council) have the right to exercise one challenge without stating the reason for the challenge and excuse a member of the Grievance Committee. One or both of the two members not originally selected will be chosen randomly to fill in for the excused member or members. If any member of a Grievance Committee is either the complainant or the respondent, that member may not serve on the Committee adjudicating his/her case. In addition, a member of the Grievance Committee may recuse himself/herself if that individual member believes there is bias or the perception of bias in his/her consideration of the matter to be reviewed. If an additional Committee member/s is/are required, the Faculty Senate will elect the member/s for the Tenure, Grievance and Academic Freedom Committee and the Vice President of Administration will select the member for the Staff Grievance Committee.

The chairperson will arrange to convene the formal hearing within 30 calendar days of the written request for a formal hearing being received. The individual appealing the decision (the grievant), the other individual party and the University representative will be notified in writing of the date, time and location of the meeting. At the hearing, the President or his/her designee will represent the University position.

Information presented at the hearing will be limited to matters addressed in the written complaint. At least seven (7) calendar days prior to the hearing, each party (the grievant and the University) will submit to the chairperson copies of any evidence and the names of any witnesses each may present, and the name and professional legal status of any person who may assist them at the hearing. These materials will be available to the opposing party upon request.

It is the responsibility of each party to secure any witnesses he or she intends to present. Neither the University, the Tenure, Grievance and Academic Freedom Committee nor the Staff Grievance Committee will be responsible for locating or compelling witnesses to provide testimony for the grievant.

If presentation of University records or documents is desired by either party in matters concerning inappropriate action by a University office, a written request should be submitted to the chairperson no less than fourteen calendar days prior to the hearing. The chairperson will make a reasonable attempt to produce the requested material provided no privacy or confidentiality rights are violated by doing so. The release of any record containing identifiable student information must comply with the University's records policy and procedures.

1. The Hearing Procedure

The following will be the procedure of the formal hearing:

- (a) The hearing shall be closed to the public.
- (b) Potential witnesses, other than the grievant and the other individual party, will be excluded from the hearing during all testimony but his/her own.
- (c) The grievant, the University representative, and the other individual party may be present throughout the hearing. The grievant, the University representative, and the other individual party may present written and verbal evidence concerning the complaint, may respond to evidence presented by the opposing party and may question any witnesses presented by the opposing party.
- (d) The grievant and the University may be assisted by a person of his/her/its choice. This person may act as an advisor, but shall not be allowed to question witnesses or make statements to the Committee.

- (e) Formal rules of evidence do not apply to this process. The Grievance Committee maintains sole authority to determine admissibility and relevance of evidence and witnesses to be presented.
- (f) An audio tape recording will be made as the single verbatim record of the hearing. This record shall be the property of the University and shall be accessed only in accordance with University policies governing confidential personnel records.
- (g) The grievant will first present evidence and witnesses, with the University provided the opportunity to question the grievant and any witnesses presented, and to present a response at the conclusion.
- (h) At the conclusion of the grievant's presentation, the University may request that the Grievance Committee grant a summary decision on the grounds that the grievant has failed to offer evidence sufficient to support the complaint. If the request is granted, the complaint will be dismissed without further presentation by the University.
- (i) If a summary decision is not requested or is denied, the University will present evidence and witnesses, with the grievant provided the opportunity to question the University's witnesses presented, and to present a response at the conclusion.
- (j) Following presentation by both parties, closing statements will be presented, beginning with the grievant. Closing statements shall be made for the purpose of summarizing evidence presented and for recommending an appropriate determination to the committee. No new evidence is to be presented during closing statements.
- (k) Minor deviations from these procedures will not render a decision invalid unless it can be shown that the deviation caused substantial prejudice to one of the parties.
- (l) Except in cases involving the revocation of tenure for cause, the grievant has the burden of persuasion and it shall be satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence, considering the record as a whole. For the revocation of tenure for cause, there must be a showing of clear and convincing evidence in the record considered as a whole.

2. The Recommendation and Final Decision

The committee will provide a written recommendation in the matter within 21 calendar days of the conclusion of the hearing. The written recommendation will include a statement of the Committee's findings and, if the complaint was determined to have merit, a recommendation for appropriate action. The recommendation of the Committee will be reported to the grievant, the University representative, and the other individual party prior to being submitted to the President. The grievant, the other individual party, or the University may submit to the President written argument that challenges the recommendation of the Committee on one or both of the following grounds only: (1) Procedural Error – such written appeal must specifically identify the procedural error including reference to the specific University procedural document that was violated; (2) Inappropriate Sanction – the written appeal must specifically state why the recommended sanction does not “fit” the findings of the Committee. The President will review the report of the Committee and the written appeals, if applicable, before rendering a final decision in the matter. The President may consult with University Counsel, the University representative, the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, and/or with other members of the Board in the formulation of the final resolution in the matter. Once approved for release to the parties in the matter and to the appropriate University administrator, the decision is final and binding on all parties. The decision shall be provided to the grievant, the other individual party, the University representative, if other than the President, and the appropriate University administrator who will impose any sanctions, if applicable. A record of the hearing shall be available for review by any of the parties in the matter.

It is the intent of the University that a grievance, issue or dispute presented in a formal hearing before the Tenure, Grievance and Academic Freedom Committee or the Staff Grievance Committee is the final hearing on that grievance, issue or dispute. Thus, a party who is unhappy with the result of the formal grievance hearing and the resulting decision may not file a complaint or grievance and start the process again.

In matters concerning inappropriate action by a University office, remedies available through this process are limited to corrective steps. That is, should the complaint or any portion be found to have merit as a result of the hearing process, remedies are limited to the correction of the situation and/or adjustment of the circumstances from which the complaint arose.

For matters in which personal misconduct by a faculty or staff members are determined to have occurred, corrective action, disciplinary action, or both may result. The imposition of discipline shall be administered by the appropriate Vice President or Academic Dean.

VI. EDUCATION

All members of the University Grievance Council, the Tenure, Grievance and Academic Freedom Committee, and the Staff Grievance Committee will receive education in the procedures governing resolution of grievances against faculty and staff at the University, as well as coverage of other relevant topics including but not limited to sexual harassment, discriminatory practices, etc. Such training shall be coordinated by the office of the Director of Administrative Services, in consultation with the Council of Deans and the Council of Vice Presidents.

SMOKING

Medical evidence clearly shows that smoking is harmful to the health of smokers. Smoke from cigarettes, cigars, and pipes is also an irritant to many nonsmokers and can worsen allergic conditions. In sufficient concentrations secondhand smoke may be harmful to those with chronic heart or lung disease. New research indicates that long-term exposure to secondhand smoke may seriously threaten the health of nonsmokers. In an effort to consider the needs and concerns of smokers and nonsmokers alike and to provide a healthful working environment for every Stetson University student and employee, the following University smoking policy is in effect. All university students, employees and visitors are expected to comply with the smoking regulations detailed in this policy.

Smoking Prohibited Areas

- Any area in which a fire or safety hazard exists.
- Common areas, including elevators, hallways, stairwells, lobbies, waiting rooms, copier rooms, mail rooms, auditoriums, reception areas, student service areas, employee lounges, and restrooms.
- Classrooms and conference rooms (a short smoking break may be provided during meetings lasting longer than one hour if requested).
- General open or public office areas.
- Computer and storage areas.
- All other locations not specifically discussed in the section below entitled "Other Areas."
- Residence Halls.

Other Areas

- Private offices may be designated "smoking permitted" or "no smoking" by the occupant. However, the occupant should refrain from smoking when a nonsmoking student, employee or visitor is present.
- In areas where smokers and nonsmokers work together, supervisors should make a reasonable effort to separate smokers from nonsmokers. In doing so, supervisors should take into consideration air flow, ventilation, existing physical barriers that might be of help, and individual sensitivities of nonsmokers.
- Students and/or employees will refrain from smoking when in University vehicles with non smokers

CONSENSUAL RELATIONS POLICY

Rationale and Definition

A consensual relationship is one in which two people are engaged by mutual consent in an emotionally (romantic) and physically (sexually) intimate relationship. When such a relationship involves people who differ in power within the University community, it is of special concern because of the potential for conflict of interest and/or abuse of power. Decisions which must be made free from bias or favor come under question when made by a person who has a romantic/sexual relationship with a person who may benefit from or be harmed by the decisions. The mere appearance of bias resulting from a consensual romantic/sexual relationship may seriously disrupt the academic or work environment. Equally important, such relationships have the potential to undermine our sense of community, mutual trust, and support.

For these reasons, the University has adopted a policy to prohibit consensual relationships and to place all employees "on notice" that the University views consensual relationships as unwise and of a high risk, especially when students are involved. A special note is made in the University's Sexual Harassment Policy and the Consensual Relations Policy that the seeds of harassment and sexual harassment exist in consensual relationships of any kind that involve differences of status or power.

Policy

Stetson University prohibits consensual relationships between:

- 1) a faculty or staff member and any student enrolled at the University;
- 2) a supervisor and subordinate employee;
- 3) an administrator and a faculty member in a unit under that administrator's direction; and,
- 4) an administrator and a staff member in a unit under that administrator's direction.

The individual with a supervisory or other decision-making role is presumed to bear the primary responsibility for any negative consequences resulting from his/her relationship. A member of the University community who violates the Consensual Relations Policy will be subject to disciplinary action by the institution, which includes the possibility of dismissal.

Process

Reporting Apparent Violations and Procedures for Action. Any member of the University community who has substantial reason to believe that a violation of the Consensual Relations Policy has occurred is encouraged to contact the Dean or Vice President supervising the person believed to be in violation of the policy, to express his/her concern and to explain the basis for the concern. The Dean or Vice President is responsible for taking appropriate action. Any concern about violations at the Dean/Vice President level or above should be taken to the President, who shall take, or cause to be taken, appropriate action. If any party to the situation is not satisfied with the actions taken by the administrator, he/she may file a grievance. Faculty or staff members on the DeLand campus should follow the Faculty or Staff Grievance Procedure described in the University's Policies and Procedures Manual. Students should follow the Grievance Procedure described in the Campus Life Handbook. Faculty, staff members, or students on the College of Law campus should follow the College of Law Employee Grievance Procedure.

In the event that a relationship described in 2, 3, or 4 above develops, the supervisor or superior administrator involved in the relationship may seek the assistance of his/her Academic Dean or division Vice President (or the President, if the involved party is an Academic Dean or Vice President) to alter the employment relationship and remove the conflict of interest and/or power differential. However, the University is not obligated to provide such accommodation for those involved in consensual relationships. If no suitable realignment of the supervisory relationship can be agreed upon, then the supervisor or superior administrator involved in the relationships will be held accountable for violation of the University policy prohibiting consensual relationships.

Education

The University provides educational opportunities to acquaint members of the University community with the specific provisions of this policy and to promote better understanding of the difficult issues which may arise as a result of consensual relationships between members of the University community.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The University recognizes that problems involving Employer-Employee relations will arise at times. It is in the best interest of both the University and the student employee to resolve these matters as soon as possible and at the lowest possible level. In order to assure student employees that their employment problems will be given fair consideration, a means of review and appeal to higher levels of authority has been established.

NOTE: ANY STUDENT EMPLOYEE WHO FAILS TO FOLLOW THE GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES AS OUTLINED BELOW SHALL LOSE ANY RIGHT IN PURSUING THE GRIEVANCE AND THE GRIEVANCE WILL BE SUBJECT TO DISMISSAL.

What Is A Grievance?

A grievance is a complaint by an employee regarding the interpretation or application of University rules and regulations, working conditions, or alleged improper treatment, which has not been resolved satisfactorily, in an informal manner between the employee and the immediate supervisor. A grievance complaint must set forth a clear indication of unfairness resulting in harm or damage to the aggrieved person, arising out of management failures, working conditions, or employment relationships. The complaint must be concerning a matter within the control of the department head and must state the relief sought. This relief must also be within the authority of the department head to grant, in whole or in part.

NOTE: A decision declining re-employment of a student after completion of an authorized period of employment is not classified as termination, therefore not subject to appeal.

Grievance Procedure

- a) The employee should first attempt to address the complaint or grievance informally by discussing it with the immediate supervisor. Although the University encourages the resolution of problems by informal discussion between employee and supervisor, the employee is free to discuss the complaint with the Student Employment Coordinator in the Department of Student Financial Planning. If deemed necessary the Student Employment Grievance Board may be consulted in an attempt to resolve the issue(s) in an informal manner. However, an informal discussion must be held with the immediate supervisor or the Student Employment Coordinator before a formal complaint may be filed.
- b) If the matter is not adjusted to the employee's satisfaction through the informal discussion, the employee may proceed to the first step in the formal grievance procedure by presenting the grievance in writing to the immediate supervisor, describing the adjustment desired, within five working days of its occurrence. The supervisor will have five working days in which to provide the employee a response in writing.
- c) If the employee is not satisfied with the response from the supervisor, he or she, may within five working days of receiving a reply from the supervisor, present the grievance to the Department Head. Employees who work in the cafeteria should present the grievance to the Student Director if the problem is with one of the student managers. If the problem is with a Sodexo employee the grievance should be forwarded to the Student Employment Coordinator. If the student is working in a cash employment position, a copy of the grievance must be forwarded to the Council of Deans or a Vice President. The Department Head will have five days in which to respond in writing, with copies forwarded to all parties involved including the Student Employment Coordinator.

- d) If the employee is not satisfied with the response from the Department Head, he/she may appeal the decision to the Student Employment Grievance Board. The Student Employment Grievance Board will be appointed by and chaired by the Vice President for Administration or his/her designee. The chair is a nonvoting member. The board will consist of one student, one faculty member and one staff member. None of the appointees will be associated with the student presenting the grievance or the department in which the student is employed. The Grievance Board must be appointed within five working days of the receipt of the latest appeal. The appeal shall be made in writing to the Vice President for Administration and must state the basis on which the appeal is being made. The Grievance Board may uphold, vacate or alter the decision of the Department Head. The Student Employment Grievance Board will provide a response in writing to the student employee with copies forwarded to all parties involved.
- e) The decision of the Student Employment Grievance Board will be final.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Stetson University recognizes that student-run publications are an important part of college life. Therefore, the University establishes student publication programs which give students the opportunity to express their creativity, provide a forum for free and open discussion, and create a permanent record of the activities and intellectual climate of the campus. Stetson University regards its student publications programs as extensions of the educational mission of the University. In keeping with the University's primary mission of quality undergraduate education, student publications offer students a chance to learn; to sharpen their skills as writers, photographers, poets, designers, managers and decision makers. Stetson University serves as publisher for several student publications including The Reporter, a student-run campus newspaper, Touchstone, a student-produced literary magazine. The University is the owner of these publications and establishes University operating and capital budgets for the support of each.

To oversee the activities of each of the student publications, the University has established a Student Publications Board. The Student Publications Board operates under a constitution adopted by the President's Staff and by the Board of Trustees.

ROLE OF STUDENTS IN UNIVERSITY GOVERNANCE

Stetson University values and encourages the participation of students in University governance. The principal avenue for student participation in University governance is through the Student Government Association (SGA). It is composed of two main bodies, the Student Senate and the Executive Cabinet. SGA is representative of the entire student body through senators from the residence halls, the commuter population, and campus organizations. The Student Government works closely with University administration to have an influence on policy decisions that directly impact the student body, and acts as the voice of the students.

There are a variety of other ways in which students are involved in University decision-making.

- (a) The President and Vice President of SGA serve with three faculty and staff members on the Activity Fee Allocations Committee (AFAC), a group responsible for the budgeting of that portion of student activity fees which are allocated to a variety of departments and programs specifically charged with providing student services.
- (b) The Student Activity Fee Allocations Committee (SAFAC) is a student board which makes decisions about allocation of program funds to registered student organizations. SAFAC is chaired by the President of SGA.
- (c) The President of the Student Government Association serves as a member of the Student Life Committee of the Board of Trustees and also attends and reports to the regular meetings of the Board.

- (d) The Stetson University Student Publications Board is chaired by a student and the majority of the members are students. The Publications Board governs student media at the University.
- (e) Most University Committees and Councils have student members, including the Diversity Council, Women's Council, Sexual Harassment Grievance Council, Values Council, Artists and Lecturer's Committee, Athletics Committee, Campus Life Committee, Library Committee and the Academic Computing Committee. Student committee members are recommended by the Student Government Association and appointed by the Council of Academic Deans.
- (f) Students lead and participate in a variety of programs at the University, including the Council for Student Activities (a student-led programming board), the Family Weekend Program, the Greenfeather Program (a community service fund drive), the Stetson Weekend Program (homecoming), and FOCUS (the new student orientation programs).
- (g) The Interfraternity Council and the Panhellenic Council are student governing bodies for the thirteen national greek letter organizations on the campus.
- (h) The Student Judicial Council is comprised of twelve students who serve to respond to alleged violations of our Code of Student Conduct. Selection is done through an application process. Participation allows students to establish standards for acceptable behavior within our community.
- (i) The Residence Hall Councils exist in each residence hall, creating an opportunity for students to develop leadership skills. Participation enables students to address the needs of their community through policy development, involvement in decisions regarding the purchase of equipment and facility changes, as well as social and educational programming. Selection is done through a peer election process.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

PREAMBLE

Stetson University endeavors to provide a living and learning environment in which students can meet their academic goals. The University has the responsibility of providing students a clear understanding of the academic requirements and policies which are generally published in the University Bulletin and The Campus Life Handbook. As a community, the University is dedicated to both personal and academic excellence. Therefore, choosing to join the Stetson University community obligates each member to a code of civilized behavior.

The University determines, publishes and makes known its rules and regulations concerning student conduct. In addition, the University has the right to determine when its rules are violated and to determine the appropriate course of action. The purpose of this handbook is to present the University's rules and regulations that govern student conduct and student activities. These regulations should be read broadly and are not designed to define prohibited conduct in exhaustive terms.

By enrolling in Stetson University, the student accepts the responsibility to become fully acquainted with the University's regulations, to comply with the University's authority, to respect the rights and property of others, and to recognize that student actions reflect upon the students involved as well as upon the entire University community. The University reserves the right to take appropriate disciplinary action for any conduct which unreasonably interrupts and/or infringes upon orderly life in the University community or infringes on the rights of others. In some cases especially those involving allegations of alcohol or illegal drug use by students under the age of 21, parents may be notified. Stetson University values a community environment free of discrimination and harassment and therefore prohibits conduct which prevents free academic interaction and opportunity or which creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive study, residential, or work environment. The University has a special concern for incidents in which students are targeted or placed in jeopardy because of their race/ethnicity, gender, sexual preference, national origin or religion. Also of particular concern are behaviors in which the student endangers or causes harm to him/herself or others. All such behaviors may lead to disciplinary action that may include suspension or expulsion from the University. Students repeatedly involved in violations of University policy are viewed to be negatively contributing to the Stetson University community. Should the inappropriate behavior continue, students may become subject to removal from University on-campus residential facilities, as well as removal from the campus. Students shall be afforded all opportunities for fairness in disciplinary proceedings. However, the University reserves the right to withdraw a student at any time for any reason deemed sufficient by the University.

ARTICLE I: Definitions

When used in this code:

1. the term "University" means Stetson University.
2. the term "student" includes all persons taking courses at the University, both full-time and part-time, pursuing undergraduate, graduate, or professional studies and those who attend post-secondary educational institutions other than Stetson University and who reside in University residence halls. Persons who are not officially enrolled for a particular term, but who have a continuing relationship with the University are considered "students".
3. the term "University official" includes any person employed by the University, performing assigned administrative or professional responsibilities (including hall directors and resident assistants and fraternity/sorority counselors).
4. the term "faculty member" means any person hired by the University to conduct classroom activities.
5. the term "University premises" includes all land, buildings, facilities, and other property in the possession of or owned, used, or controlled by the University (including adjacent streets and sidewalks).

6. the term "organization" means any number of persons who have complied with the formal requirements for University recognition.
7. the term "University-sponsored activity" means any activity on or off campus that is initiated, aided, authorized or supervised by the University.
8. the term "judicial body" means any person or persons authorized by the Vice President for Administration to determine whether a student has violated the Student Code and to recommend imposition of sanctions.
9. the term "Student Judicial Officer" means a University official authorized on a case-by-case basis by the Vice President for Administration to impose sanctions upon students found to have violated the Student Code. The Vice President for Administration may authorize a judicial officer to serve simultaneously as a judicial officer and the sole member or one of the members of a judicial body. Nothing shall prevent the Vice President for Administration from authorizing the same judicial officer to impose sanctions in all cases.
10. the term "Appellate Board" means any person or persons authorized by the Vice President for Administration to consider an appeal from a judicial body's determination that a student has violated the Student Code or from the sanctions imposed by the Student Judicial Officer.
11. the term "shall" is used in the imperative sense.
12. the term "may" is used in the permissive sense.
13. the Vice President for Administration is that person designated by the University President to be responsible for the administration of the Student Code.
14. the term "policy" is defined as the written regulations of the University as found in, but not limited to, the Campus Life Handbook, and the Graduate/Undergraduate Catalogs.
15. the term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to; (1) the use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; or (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the University faculty or staff (See Academic Honesty Policy).
16. the term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgments. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials. (See Academic Honesty Policy).

ARTICLE II: Proscribed Conduct

A. Jurisdiction of the University

Generally, University jurisdiction and discipline shall be limited to conduct which occurs on University premises or which adversely affects the University community and/or the pursuit of its objectives. The University may review and/or take action against any student for off-campus conduct as outlined under Section B.

B. Off-Campus Conduct

1. The University may choose to initiate the disciplinary process against a student:
  - a. if a student is charged with an off-campus conduct violation of federal, state, or local laws; or
  - b. when a student's behavior off-campus interferes with the rights of others, reflects adversely on the University, or results in a criminal conviction. The circumstances of the case shall be reviewed by the Vice-President for Administration or his/her designee to determine whether the student may be subject to disciplinary action and/or determine the status of the student. The University will take disciplinary action against a student for an off-campus violation when the nature of the violation is such that, in the judgment of the Vice President for Administration, or his/her designee, the violation may demonstrate disregard for the University community and/or is likely to disrupt or interfere with the normal operation of the University.

C. Conduct - Rules and Regulations

University regulations are set forth in writing in order to give students general notice of prohibited conduct. The list is not designed to be all-inclusive but should serve as examples of prohibited conduct and, thus, be broadly read. Any student found to have committed conduct prohibited by the University is subject to the disciplinary sanctions out-lined in Article III:

1. Respect for the Law - Stetson University students are expected to be good citizens of the community. Regulations of the University, state of Florida, and the United States apply to all students. This includes, but is not limited to:

- a. Public Laws - Students/organizations must comply with all public laws.
- b. Alcohol - Students/organizations must adhere to all laws and University regulations governing the purchase, use, sale, furnishing, possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages. Florida State law prohibits the possession, use or distribution of alcohol to any individual under 21 years of age. Residents age 21 or older are permitted to possess or consume wine, beer and wine coolers on campus only as in accordance with the University guidelines contained in the University Alcohol Policy as described in pages 34-39.
- c. Controlled Substances - Unlawful manufacturing, possessing, having under control, selling, transmitting, using or being a party thereto of any dangerous drug, controlled substance or drug paraphernalia is prohibited.
- d. Weapons - Firearms, fireworks, chemicals of explosive nature, explosives or explosive devices, or weapons shall not be brought onto the University campus except as may be specifically authorized by the Director of Public Safety. Weapons may not be carried by a person or stored on the campus in any vehicle or other location. The term "weapon" includes any object or substance designed to inflict a wound, cause injury or incapacitate and may include, but are not limited to, all firearms, pellets/BB guns, home-manufactured cannons, bow and arrows, slingshots, martial arts devices, switchblade knives or knives with a blade four inches or longer, and clubs.
- e. Disorderly Conduct - Students/organizations must refrain from disorderly conduct. Specifically, behavior which disrupts the academic, administrative or residential community, infringes on the rights of others in the community or disrupts the generally accepted sense of public decency and morals within the community. Examples of such conduct include, but are not limited to: behaviors attributable to public intoxication as well as abuse, nuisance or obscene telephone calls, excessive noise, exhibitionism, and fighting.
- f. Fire Safety - Students/organizations must refrain from tampering with fire safety equipment such as extinguishers, smoke detectors, alarm pull stations or emergency exits. Tampering with any equipment or fixtures used for the purpose of fire, health, or building safety is prohibited.

Fire drills are conducted at various times during the year to ensure that all residents are familiar with evacuation procedures and to ensure that all safety equipment is functional. During a fire drill or alarm, every student MUST evacuate the building and follow emergency procedures issued by Public Safety, Residential Life or Student Life staff.

Any substance that could cause a fire, damage, or an explosion is not permitted inside the residential facilities. This provision includes kerosene heaters and fuel, fuel containers for motorcycles and motor vehicles, candles, open flames, incense of any kind, fragrance pots and similar burning devices. Because of serious concerns about life safety and fire procedures, there will be announced room inspections to identify and correct fire and safety hazards. The purpose of these room inspections is to protect you, your neighbors and your property, as well as to establish compliance with safety regulations.

2. Respect for others - students are expected to act with regard for the well being of others, to be civil and to cause no harm to others.
  - a. Threats and Endangerment - Students/organizations shall not endanger the safety, health, or life of themselves or others. Physical abuse, verbal abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, coercion, and/or other conduct including sexual assault and sexual harassment is prohibited.
  - b. Aiding and Abetting - Attempting, aiding, abetting, conspiring, hiring or being an accessory to any act prohibited by this code shall be considered to the same extent as completed violations.
  - c. University Employees - Students and organization must show respect for employees of the University including Residential Life and Student Activities staff. Any form of harassment, interference or noncompliance with the proper and lawful directions of University officials is prohibited.
  - d. Student Identification - Students shall be required to obtain an official student identification card within one week of enrollment at the University. Students are required to carry their student identification card with them at all times, and present it when requested to any University official who makes such a request while in the performance of their duties. The altering of, or misuse of a student identification card is prohibited. Students must surrender their student identification card to the Office of Student Judicial Affairs upon their withdrawal from the University.
  - e. Hazing - Students/organizations who engage in hazing activities will be adjudicated. Examples include, but are not limited to: physical abuse, moral indignity, sleep deprivation, forced exclusion from social contact, nudity, destruction or removal of public/private property.
  - f. Students/organizations who violate published University policies, regulations, or rules will be adjudicated. Such regulations include, but are not limited to: residential housing agreements and policies, and regulations relating to parking and traffic.
3. Respect for Personal and Academic Integrity- Stetson University is an academic community. The value of Stetson University's education is determined in part by the quality and character of Stetson University students and graduates. Therefore, students/organizations are expected to uphold personal and academic integrity.
  - a. Academic Honesty - Students/organizations shall refrain from all acts of dishonesty, including but not limited to: cheating, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty.
  - b. Misrepresentation - Students shall refrain from furnishing false information to any University official, faculty member or office. This includes forgery, alteration or misuse of any University document, record, or instrument of identification.
4. Respect for Property- Students/organizations must respect the property of others and take reasonable care when using University or personal property.
  - a. Theft - Attempted or actual theft of property of the University community or other personal or public property is prohibited. This includes theft of services on University premises and knowingly possessing stolen property.
  - b. Property Damage - Attempted or actual damage of property of the University community or other personal or public property is prohibited.
  - c. University Facilities - Unauthorized entry into any University facility, or portion thereof, or unauthorized use or abuse of any University building, facility or premise. Students are not permitted on the roofs of any building at anytime. The unauthorized possession, duplication or use of any key which fits any University facility is prohibited.
  - d. Technology Resources - Theft or abuse of computer time or network services including, but not limited to: (1) unauthorized entry into a file, to use, read, or change the contents, or for any other purposes; (2) unauthorized transfer of a file; (3) unauthorized use of another individual's identification and password; (4) use of computing facilities to interfere with the work of another student, staff or faculty member; (5) use of computing facilities to send obscene or abusive messages; (6) use of computing facilities to interfere with normal operations of Stetson's computing systems; (7) use of net working facilities that is not in compliance with the policies established by the Center for Information Technology.

5. Respect for the Judicial System - Students/organizations shall be afforded all opportunities for fairness in disciplinary proceedings. However, students/organizations shall not abuse the judicial system. The following are examples of violations of this principle:
  - a. Failure to Comply - Students must comply with the directions of the Student Judicial Officer in scheduling and attending appointments and hearings and in completion of imposed sanctions.
  - b. Falsification - Students may not falsify, distort, or misrepresent information provided in a judicial investigation or hearing. Knowingly instituting judicial proceeding without cause is a violation of this standard.
  - c. Interference - Influencing or attempting to influence another person's participation in the judicial process is prohibited. This includes but is not limited to harassment, intimidation, or attempted influence of the members of a judicial body.
  - d. Disruption - Disruption or interference with the orderly proceedings of a judicial hearing is prohibited.
6. Respect for Residential Policies - Stetson University and the Departments of Residential and Student Life are committed to creating an environment which enables students to freely pursue their academic goals. As such, it is crucial that students take responsibility for their actions and behaviors as members of that community. The Residential and Student Activities staffs operate under the premise that students residing in our facilities are adults capable of initiating reasonable decisions to ensure the rights and responsibility of themselves and other students. Students have the right to pursue their studies in a pleasant and secure environment, and the responsibility to know and adhere to policies and procedures which are the standards for the Stetson residential and University communities. These policies and procedures apply to all residential facilities including the fraternity and sorority houses.
  - a. Appliances -The following appliances are NOT permitted for use within the residential facilities: halogen lights, hot plates, "George Foreman" other grills, toaster ovens/toasters, crock pots, open coil appliances and electric woks and/or skillets. Extension cords are also prohibited. If there is a need for multiple plugs over and above those outlets provided, residents must provide a strip outlet which meets the following specifications:
    1. Must be UL approved and include a circuit breaker;
    2. Must be 15 amps, 14 gauge;
    3. Must be 120-125 volts;
    4. Cannot have more than six (6) grounded power outlets per strip.
  - b. Bicycles/Motorcycles/Motor vehicles - Bicycles/Motorcycles are NOT PERMITTED in areas public access, exits, stairwells, hallways or lounges and must be kept outside the building.
  - c. Community Agreements - Following check-in, each floor will develop a Community Agreement defining the standards for behavior within their particular community. Community Agreements are developed within the parameters of the Student Code of Conduct. Once developed, all residents of that floor will be held accountable for upholding the Agreement. If changes are needed during the year, floor members should organize a Floor Meeting and revise their original Agreement.
  - d. Guest and Escort Policy -A guest is defined as a person who is a nonresident of a residential facility. Hosts are responsible for the behavior of their guest(s) at all times and are required to escort them within the residential facilities at all times. Hosts are also obligated to inform guests of all University and Residential Housing policies. Please note that guests are subject to the same policies and procedures as are students, as guests and their hosts share responsibility for conduct on the campus. Guests should not be in buildings un-escorted or in possession of residence hall keys. Guests will be escorted out of the building should they be in violation of the Guest and Escort policy. Further, we require residents to limit their guests' stay to no more than two consecutive nights on campus. (unless special permission is granted by the Assistant Director.) Residents may host overnight guests for no more than ten (10) nights per academic year. REALIZE GUESTS OF THE OPPOSITE SEX MUST ADHERE TO THE VISITATION POLICY. Our goal is to ensure the safety and security of our facilities and residents while also allowing students to host their guests.

- e. Lofts - Personally owned lofts may only be constructed in Emily Hall, Chaudoin Hall, or the sorority houses. Construction must meet basic fire and safety standards. Prior to constructing a loft, each resident involved must complete a Loft Construction Agreement which lists the specific guidelines for loft construction. All lofts will be inspected by the Assistant Director of Residential Life and a Facilities Management representative. University beds disassembled for loft construction must be stored in the student's room and reassembled at the time of check out. Students will be charged $50.00 for beds not reassembled and $100.00 for lofts not removed at checkout. If a resident chooses to construct a loft, s/he will be responsible for any damage in the room caused by the loft.
- f. Noise and Disruptive Behavior - Residential facilities must be conducive to studying and sleeping. It is important that residents respect the rights of others as they study, sleep, listen to music and socialize. Courtesy hours should be in effect at all times; that is, residents are expected to be considerate of others and to comply with any request for quiet. Residents should operate stereos, televisions and sound equipment with regard for the rights of others. Use of musical instruments in the residential facilities should respect these rights as well. Sports activities (including but not limited to golf, frisbee, roller-blading or skating, football, hockey, etc.) and the use of any sporting equipment are not permitted inside residential facilities except in designated areas. Other behavior which is disruptive to the residential and campus community is also prohibited.
- g. Pets - Pets, other than tropical fish or seeing eye dogs, are prohibited in any residential facility. Fish tanks are limited to 50 gallons in size.
- h. Quiet Hours -In addition to normal courtesy hours, quiet hours will be established and included in the Community Agreement for each floor. During the established quiet hours, each resident is responsible for making sure that his or her noise is not at a level to disturb anyone else who may be studying or sleeping. During Final Exam week each semester, 24-hour quiet hours will be in effect for all residential facilities. Twenty-four hour quiet hours begin at 12:00 midnight on the night before reading day.
- i. Roommate Agreements- Roommate pairs at the beginning of the year, or those experiencing conflict during the year may want to consider, or may be asked to complete a Roommate Agreement similar to the Community Agreement. Your Resident Assistant can help in these situations. Residents will be held accountable for upholding the conditions of the agreement. This document is intended to serve as an agreement between roommates to ensure that each individual's rights are respected. Your level of enjoyment and satisfaction from residence hall living will depend to a large extent on the thoughtful consideration you demonstrate for one another. As roommates, you should mutually determine the decisions and the stipulations of the behavioral contract and endorse it.
- j. Room Decorations - Decorations used for seasonal and/or special events must be of fire retardant material. Live Christmas trees, wreaths, or boughs are not permitted in the residential facilities. No partitions, dividers, or screens may be assembled or constructed in any room which would violate fire safety requirements. Residents may not paint walls, assemble shelves, bike racks, or fixtures of any kind without approval from their Assistant Director. Residents found to have done any of the above will be asked to remove the particular items and will be charged for repairs needed to restore the room to its original condition. Residents are not to make repairs themselves.
- k. Safety and Security - Ideally, we would like to guarantee that all students and facilities are free from safety and security concerns. These goals can only be achieved, however, with the assistance of residents. Students are responsible for maintaining a safe living environment. Propping doors, allowing access of unauthorized guests to the residential facilities, propelling or discarding items from windows, duplicating residence hall building and/or room keys or otherwise participating in any behavior which compromises the security and safety of residents or facilities is prohibited.

- l. Smoking - In compliance with Florida State law, smoking is not permitted in any area of the residential facilities (including private rooms, hallways, lounges, lobbies or stairwells.)
- m. Furnishings - The University provides each resident with a bed, mattress, desk and chair, drawer space, and in some cases bookshelves, desk lights, and nightstands. Students are responsible for maintaining the condition of the furnishings in their room and in any common areas, such as lounges and lobbies. Students may arrange furniture within a room in any reasonable manner, providing that all furniture is placed in its original location at checkout. All University furniture must remain in it's original room. Furniture may not be moved from one room to another. Extra furniture resulting from a vacancy in a room may not be moved into hallways, storage, or common areas. Beds which have been disassembled to allow for construction of a loft must be stored in the student's room. Students may be charged the full replacement cost of furniture removed from their room. Furnishings provided for lounges and community rooms may not be moved to a room. Students who move furniture from common areas into rooms may face a minimum fine of $25.00. The furniture in public areas is provided for the use of all residents and is not to be moved into students' rooms. Student(s) found to have lounge furniture in their room may be subject to judicial action.
- n. Visitation - Stetson University has a policy which requires that residents not host members of the opposite sex as guests within certain hours. Any behaviors engaged in by residents and/or their guests which infringe on the rights of roommates or hall-mates may be considered a violation of this visitation policy, the Guest/Escort policy, and/or the policy addressing noise/disruptive behavior. Hours have been established during which residents MAY host guests as follows:

Conrad Hall, Gordis Hall-upper/lower 5, Fraternity and Sorority Houses:
Sunday through Thursday 10:00 a.m. - 12:30 a.m.
Friday and Saturday 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 a.m.

Carson/Hollis, Chaudoin, Gordis upper/lower 4 and 6, Nemec, Smith:
Monday through Thursday 10:00 a.m. - 12:30 a.m.
Weekends 10:00 a.m. Friday through 12:30 a.m. Monday.

Emily Hall, Stetson Hall, Foreign Language House and French House:
A policy of "24/7" visitation is in place for these residential buildings. Residents are expected to comply with the conditions agreed upon in their Roommate and Community Agreements. "24/7" visitation does not in any-way condone cohabitation. Residents must follow the Guest Policy as outlined in section 6d above.

ARTICLE III: Judicial Policies

A. Judicial Authority

1. The Dean of Students shall serve as the Student Judicial Officer and shall determine the composition of the judicial bodies and determine which judicial body shall be authorized to hear each case.
2. The Student Judicial Officer shall develop policies for the administration of the judicial program and procedural rules for the conduct of hearings which are not inconsistent with provisions of the Student Code.
3. Decisions made and sanctions imposed by a judicial body and/or Student Judicial Officer shall be final pending the normal appeal process.
4. A judicial body may be designated as arbitrator of disputes within the student community in cases which do not involve a violation of the Student Code. All parties must agree to arbitration, and to be bound by the decision with no right of appeal.

B. Adjudication Process

1. A student who is alleged to have violated the Student Code shall have the matter adjudicated by either an administrative hearing or a hearing by the Student Judicial Council. Administrative hearings are usually conducted by the Student Judicial Officer, but the Student Judicial Officer may constitute a hearing board of three persons; one faculty member, one staff member and one student to hear certain cases. The Student Judicial Officer may also designate the Director or Assistant Director of Residential Life as a judicial body to hear some cases.
2. Under certain circumstances a student may be required to have an administrative hearing. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, the following: when the alleged violation involves a sensitive personal or academic issue, (such as cases of sexual misconduct), during finals week, between semesters, and in the summer when the Student Judicial Council is not in session.
3. Generally, violations of University residential housing policies are referred to the appropriate Residential Life/Student Activities staff members, but may be adjudicated by the Student Judicial Officer.
4. Violations of University regulations by officially recognized student organizations are handled by the Director of Student Activities and Hollis Center.

C. Charges and Hearings

1. Any student, staff member, or faculty member may submit to the Student Judicial Officer charges against any student for misconduct. Such charges shall be submitted, in writing, to the Student Judicial Officer as soon as possible after the incident takes place.
2. The Student Judicial Officer shall make every effort to have alleged student misconduct matters considered as expeditiously as possible in order to remove any question of a student's continuance at the University.
  - a. The Student Judicial officer will secure all available information concerning the alleged misconduct to determine if the charges have merit. If charges can be resolved administratively by mutual consent of the parties involved on a basis acceptable to the Student Judicial Officer, such disposition shall be final and there shall be no subsequent proceedings.
  - b. If the student withdraws from the University before the matter is resolved, reentry shall not occur until the matter is resolved.
  - c. However, in cases where civil or criminal charges are pending, or in cases where students involve their own counsel in the matter, the university may withhold adjudication pending further investigation or attempted resolution by legal counsel for the students and the university.
3. The Student Judicial Officer shall present all charges in writing to the accused student and shall inform the student to contact him/her within three (3) business days after the student has been notified of the charges to schedule a hearing. Notification will be attempted to either a campus address, or to the last address provided by the student to the University. It is incumbent upon the student to notify the University in the event of a change in his/her address. If the student fails to appear for a hearing and the Student Judicial Officer has, in good faith, exhausted all reasonable efforts to schedule a hearing, the Student Judicial Officer, on the basis of the information available, may make a determination of a violation of the Student Code and may impose a sanction for such violation. This decision shall be accomplished in writing to the student.
4. Hearings shall be conducted by a judicial body according to the following guidelines:
  - a. Hearings on alleged violation(s) of the Student Code shall be private.
  - b. Admission of any person to the hearing shall be at the discretion of the judicial body and/or the Student Judicial Officer.
  - c. In hearings involving more than one accused student, the Student Judicial Officer, at his/her discretion, may permit the hearings concerning each student to be conducted separately.
  - d. The complainant, the accused student, and the judicial body shall have the privilege of presenting witnesses at the hearing subject to cross-questions by the judicial body. Witnesses shall be present in a hearing only during the offerings of their information.
  - e. All procedural questions are subject to the final decision of the Student Judicial Officer.

f. The student shall be informed that the hearing is for the purpose of discussing the charges of alleged violation(s) of the Student Code. Further, the student shall be afforded the privilege to have an advisor present who does not appear as a witness during a hearing. In cases where one student is bringing charges against another student, both students are afforded the privilege to have an advisor present. While students are permitted to select an advisor of their choice, parents and attorneys are not permitted to be advisors unless special permission is granted by the Student Judicial Officer. Advisors are not permitted to speak or to participate directly in any hearing before a judicial body. A student may seek assistance from an advisor in answering questions put forward to the student during the hearing. The student shall also be :

- (1) afforded the privilege to remain silent and not have that silence an inference of a violation;
- (2) informed that any oral or written statements that the student may make pertaining to the alleged violation may be presented in any subsequent proceedings;
- (3) afforded the privilege to prepare a written statement concerning the alleged violation;
- (4) informed that the academic, behavior, and co-curricular activities record may be presented as a part of any subsequent proceeding;
- (5) presumed not in violation until a violation is determined;
- (6) afforded the opportunity to review all evidence against him/her in any subsequent proceeding;
- (7) Afforded the opportunity to obtain from the Student Judicial Officer, incident reports and other materials upon which the misconduct charge is based by requesting such materials in writing at least 48 hours preceding the established time for the disciplinary hearing. The University does not assume responsibility to make available these materials in advance of the hearing unless they have been formally requested in writing. The University shall make every effort to provide materials, once requested, as soon as possible, but in no case later than 24 hours prior to the hearing.
- (8) afforded the privilege to appeal a decision by the judicial body to an Appellate Body (see Article V: Appeals).

g. At the conclusion of the proceedings, the judicial body shall determine (by majority vote if the judicial body consists of more than one person) whether the student has violated each section of the Student Code which the student is charged with violating.

- (1) The judicial body's determination shall be made on the basis of whether it is more likely than not that the accused student violated the Student Code. The findings shall be made by an examination of the evidence and statements offered by the student in the hearing.
- (2) If the student is found to have violated the Student Code, the judicial body shall recommend to the Student Judicial Officer sanctions to be imposed. In cases where the Director or Assistant Director of Residential Life serves as the judicial body, he/she may impose the sanction(s). A letter outlining the judicial decision and any applicable sanctions will also be mailed to the student.
- (3) A student's prior record (legal or disciplinary) shall not be used to determine or substantiate an alleged violation of the Student Code. However, a prior record may be considered in determining appropriate sanctions when the judicial body has determined a violation occurred.
- (4) All information for a student found to be in violation of the Student Code will be placed in their student discipline file maintained in the Office of Dean of Students. This information is not placed in the general student information file.

h. Any student who fails to complete the sanction(s) issued in their judicial conference and outlined in the sanction letter, will be viewed as non-compliant. Noncompliance is looked on unfavorably by the University and may result in further disciplinary action against the student.

- i. In all cases where it is determined that a student is not in violation of University and/or Residential Housing policy, no further action will be taken.
- (5) Students may be accountable to both civil authorities and to the university for acts which constitute violations of law and of the Student Code of Conduct. Disciplinary action at the university will normally proceed during the pendency of criminal proceedings and will not be subject to challenge on the grounds that criminal charges involving the same incident have been dismissed or reduced. When a student has been charged by a civil authority for violation of law, the university will neither request nor agree to special consideration for the student solely because of his or her status as a student.

D. Sanctions

1. The following sanctions are among those which maybe imposed upon any student determined to have violated the student code of conduct.
  - a. Administrative Warning. A written notice that the student's behavior violated University regulations.
  - b. Formal Reprimand. A letter of disapproval for violation of University regulations that reflects unfavorably on the student or the University.
  - c. Restriction of Privileges. Denial of specific privileges for a definite period of time. Restrictions will be clearly defined.
  - d. Fines. Previously established and/or appropriate fines may be imposed.
  - e. Restitution. Compensation for damage, loss, theft, or injury. The judicial body shall set the amount and form of restitution which shall not exceed the fair amount of damage, loss, theft, or injury incurred.
  - f. Discretionary Sanctions. Such sanctions include, but are not limited to, work assignments, service to the University/Community or other educational requirements directly related to the violation. The provision will be clearly defined.
  - g. Residential Probation. A strong statement of disapproval for violation of residential housing policies and/or University regulations. Imposed for a specified period of time, residential probation includes the probability of more severe disciplinary sanctions, including removal from University housing, if the student is found in violation of the Student Code during the probationary period.
  - h. Disciplinary Probation. An encumbrance on the student's good standing at the University. Any subsequent violation of University regulations during the probationary period may result in separation from the University. A fixed term of probation not less than one semester in length may be specified. If no additional violation of University regulations occur, the student is returned to good standing at the conclusion of the probationary period. A student on disciplinary probation is deemed "not in good standing" for a period of time with the University and normally the student will:
    - (1) Forfeit the privilege to represent the University in any intercollegiate event, competition, or other manner;
    - (2) Forfeit the privilege of holding an office in any student organization recognized by the University or of any elected or appointed student office or University community assignment; and as appropriate,
    - (3) Perform such reasonable civic or campus service, non-credit academic assignments, or other developmental action related to the violation.
  - i. Residential Suspension. Removal from University on-campus residential facilities (residence hall, fraternity or sorority house, or auxiliary unit) for a definite period of time. Conditions for return to housing may be specified. Students suspended from University on-campus residential facilities are not permitted to visit any residential facility during the period of their suspension.
  - j. Disciplinary Suspension. Termination of the student's enrollment and exclusion of the student from the University for a specified period of time. During suspension, the student shall not be permitted to enroll in any courses offered by the University, either in residence or by correspondence, nor shall credit be given by the University for academic work taken at another institution, or be permitted to enter any University facility, or be on the property of the University, during the term of their suspension. Students suspended from the University are not permitted to be on the campus and may not attend any University function unless given permission to do so by the Dean of Students. Conditions for readmission may be specified.

k. Expulsion. Termination of the student's enrollment and exclusion of the student from the University for an indefinite period of time, which in no instance shall be less than two calendar years from the date of the imposition of the sanction. Students expelled from the University are not permitted to enter any University facility, or be on the property of the University. Violators of this sanction could be subject to arrest for trespassing. This sanction includes the same restrictions listed in Article III (D)(1)(j): Disciplinary Suspension.

l. Enrollment Block. A letter stating that the student may not reenter Stetson University without prior approval from the Dean of Students when enrollment has been blocked for a previous disciplinary matter or medical reason.

2. More than one of the sanctions listed above may be imposed for any single violation.

3. In each case in which a judicial body determines that a student has violated the Student Code, the sanction(s) shall be imposed by the Student Judicial Officer. In cases in which persons other than or in addition to the Student Judicial Officer have been authorized to serve as the judicial body, the sanctions shall be recommended to the Student Judicial Officer by the judicial body. The Director and Assistant Director of Residential Life, serving as the judicial body, may be authorized to impose sanctions. The Student Judicial Officer will utilize the judicial body's recommendation in determining appropriate sanctions.

E. Interim Suspension

In certain circumstances, the Vice President for Administration, or designee, may impose a University or on-campus housing suspension prior to the hearing before a judicial body.

1. Interim suspension may be imposed only: (a) to ensure the safety and well-being of members of the University; (b) to ensure the student's own physical or emotional safety and well-being; or (c) if the student poses a definite threat of disruption of or interference with the normal operations of the University.

2. During interim suspension, the student shall be denied access to on-campus housing and/or the campus (including classes) and/or all other University activities or privileges for which the Vice President for Administration or the Student Judicial Officer may determine to be appropriate.

F. Departure From Campus Following Suspension or Expulsion and Request for Reinstatement.

1. Any student who has been required to withdraw from the University for disciplinary or medical reasons shall leave the premises immediately after being notified unless permission to remain longer is obtained from the Dean of Students or the Vice President for Administration.

2. Any student required to withdraw from the University for disciplinary reasons and who desires to be readmitted shall present his/her request in writing to the Dean of Students at least three (3) weeks prior to the beginning of the semester for which readmission is being requested.

a. The status of any student resuming studies at the University after suspension or expulsion for disciplinary reasons shall be that of Disciplinary Probation (Article III, Section E, paragraph 1(h) for the first semester of reenrollment.

3. Any student required to withdraw from the University for medical reasons and who desires to be readmitted shall follow reenrollment procedures obtained from the Dean of Students.

4. After obtaining clearance for readmission, students must comply with deadlines and/or requirements of the University Bulletin in effect at the time of their reentry.

5. Any on-campus residential student who is required to withdraw from the University for judicial reasons shall not be eligible for a refund of residential charges and/or fees in accordance with their Housing Agreement.

ARTICLE IV: Student Judicial Council

- A. A quorum of the Student Judicial Council to hear any case shall be two-thirds (2/3) of its voting members. Voting members are defined as all members not on leave of absence and not ineligible to vote because of their appearance as a witness or because of a conflict of interest.
- B. The Council shall not be obligated to hear cases ready for adjudication in the last week of classes, before final examinations of an academic term, or during the summer. In such instances, the Student Judicial Officer shall have authority to hear all cases.
- C. The proceedings of the council hearings shall be recorded electronically and the recording shall be maintained by the Student Judicial Officer.

ARTICLE V: Appeals

- A. Decisions reached by the Student Judicial Board, a board convened by the Student Judicial Officer, or by the Student Judicial Officer alone may be appealed by accused students to a University Appellate Board. The student shall adhere to the following stipulations:
  1. Appeal requests shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the Vice President for Administration or his/her designee within seven (7) calendar days of delivery of the decision.
  2. In appealing a judicial decision, said appeal must fall into one of the following categories:
    - a) The student has new evidence available that was not available prior to the original hearing.
    - b) The judicial process as outlined in this publication was not adhered to during the student's original hearing.
    - c) The sanctions are not appropriate to the violation for which the student has been found responsible.
- B. Upon receipt of the appeal request, the Vice President for Administration or his/her designee shall evaluate the request and decide whether an appeal will be granted. If an appeal is granted, the appeal will be considered by the University Appellate Board. The Board includes the Vice President for Administration or his/her designee as chair, two faculty members, one Student member, and one University staff member.
  1. A time and place for the appeal hearing shall be set as soon as is practical. If the Board is unable to meet during the semester in which the alleged offense occurred, the appeal hearing shall take place no later than the fifth class day of the next semester.
  2. The Board may elect to decide the appeal based solely on information contained in the written appeal and the record of the previous judicial proceeding. However, the Board may elect to include a conference with the parties in the case.
  3. The burden of proof in an appeal shall be upon the accused student to prove his/her case by a preponderance of the evidence or information.
- C. Immediately after hearing an appeal, the Board will deliberate. Upon conclusion of its deliberation, the Board shall inform the student of its decision. A formal letter outlining the decision shall be sent by the chair of the Board to the student and all parties indicated on the original disciplinary sanction letter.
- D.
  1. The Board may either:
    - a. Affirm the original decision; or
    - b. Modify the original decision, reverse the decision and dismiss the charges; or
    - c. Alter the sanctions.
  2. The decision of the Board shall be the final appeal authority for the University for all cases of a disciplinary nature.

- E. A decision reached or a sanction imposed by the Director or Assistant Director of Residential Life serving as a hearing officer may be appealed by the accused students to the Student Judicial Officer.
1. The student shall follow the same procedures outlined in Section A above.
  2. Upon receipt of the appeal, the Student Judicial Officer may make a decision based solely on the information provided or may choose to meet with the individuals involved. The Student Judicial Officer may choose to convene a board to respond to the appeal. This board shall be made up of 2 Administrative staff members (1 to be designated as chairperson), 2 faculty members, and one student member. A formal letter outlining the decision will be forwarded to the student and to all parties indicated on the original sanction letter.
  3. The Student Judicial Officer or the board may:
    - a. Affirm the original decision; or
    - b. Modify the original decision, reverse the decision or dismiss the charges; or
    - c. Alter the sanctions.

ARTICLE VI: Standard of Evidence

- A. The standard of evidence used in disciplinary decision making shall be that of a preponderance of the evidence or information presented (it is "more likely than not" that the accused student violated the Student Code).
- B. The admissibility of evidence or information presented for consideration to a judicial body may be at the discretion of the chairperson and/or the Student Judicial Officer.

ARTICLE VII: Disciplinary Files and Records

- A. Case referrals may result in the development of a disciplinary file in the name of the accused student. Other than University suspension or expulsion or in cases where an enrollment block is imposed, disciplinary action shall not be made part of the student's academic record, but shall become part of the student's judicial file.
1. Records of judicial proceedings for students found to have violated the Student Code shall be retained as a disciplinary record by the Student Judicial Officer in the Office of Student Judicial Affairs for six years from the date of the sanction or four years after the student's graduation from the University, whichever comes first. Records shall be kept in a secured file and subject to limited access by the chairperson of a judicial body and/or the Student Judicial Officer and the Vice President for Administration.
    - a. Any accused student may request that the hearing proceedings before a judicial body be recorded electronically. The Student Judicial Officer may also choose to record the proceedings. The recording shall be the property of the University. The student may request a transcribed copy of the proceedings (provided at a minimal cost) and such request shall be made in writing to the Student Judicial Officer. Electronic recordings of the proceedings will be maintained and available until the Appeal time period has been exhausted; at that time the electronic recordings of the proceedings will be removed from the record.
    - b. Students may request either access to, or copies of their judicial records. Such requests should be made in writing to the office of Student Judicial Affairs. Students will only be granted access to written reports and sanction letters contained in their judicial file.
  2. In all such cases where the accused student is not found in violation of the Student Code, such finding shall be clearly noted in the records.
- B. Disciplinary records may be retained for longer periods of time or permanently if a student was suspended, expelled or blocked from enrollment, and in situations that may result in future litigation.
1. Disciplinary records may be destroyed by the Vice President for Administration or his/her designee for good cause except in cases which resulted in suspension or expulsion, upon written request by the student to the Student Judicial Officer.
  2. Factors to be considered in review of such petitions shall include:
    - a. the nature of the violation(s) and the severity of any damage, loss, theft or injury;
    - b. the student's compliance with the University's disciplinary sanction(s); and/or
    - c. the student's present demeanor and conduct subsequent to the violation.

RESIDENTIAL LIFE PROGRAM PHILOSOPHY

Student Development

The residence hall is your basic living environment while attending Stetson University. The experiences you gain while living with your peers constitute fundamental parts of your education and growth within and outside of the classroom. In fact, it is within your residence hall that your intellectual and social development come together. Our goal is to help you become a competent, mature individual, fully responsible for yourself, your actions and your decisions.

Community Development

The Residential Life staff seeks to promote a sense of community within each floor of your residence hall. A community is a group of individuals which respects the rights and privacy of each other and functions together to promote the growth of the community for the benefit of all members. It is different from your home communities because the on-campus community is largely comprised of students seventeen to twenty-two years of age who share common goals; that is, pursuing higher education and experiencing the transition from living at home to living on their own.

This transition is difficult and can be complicated with the stresses and pressures of succeeding at college. Building a sense of community in the halls helps to establish peer support groups among residents. These groups along with the support from family and friends significantly improve a student's adjustment and success at college.

To help you build a genuine community, staff and returning student leaders first provide a variety of opportunities for students to meet and interact. Scheduled activities (such as intramural sports, organized socials, and educational programs) help students to create a strong community. Successful communities are defined in several ways. Floors with successful communities have very active residents. These residents help plan events for their floor, buildings and areas. Further, students take responsibility for the facilities by keeping damage and vandalism at a minimum. Students in a successful community take pride in their living area by fostering an environment which gives each student the opportunity to develop intellectually, socially, and personally.

Overall, our goal is to provide students the opportunity to learn from their experiences and become responsible adults. By learning about the various cultures represented within the college environment and sharing those experiences with peers, students are given the opportunity to prepare for life after completing their college experience.

RESIDENTIAL LIFE & GREEK LIFE STAFF

Assistant Directors

The Assistant Directors of Residential Life (AD) and the Residential Life Coordinator (RLC) are professional staff members who have the responsibility of providing supervision and support for the overall residential life program. Their offices are located on the second floor of the Carlton Union Building. The AD and RLC live in the residence halls allowing them to be more aware of the day to day lives of students. They are responsible for supervising and coordinating the programming efforts of the Residence Hall Directors and Resident Assistants, and conducting staff training and development for building staffs. They are also available to counsel and advise students and assist with roommate conflict mediation.

Residence Hall Directors

Each residence hall operates under the direction of a Residence Hall Director (RHD) who lives in the building. She/He has the responsibility of providing leadership for the Resident Assistants in your building. The Residence Hall Director is a student like yourself who is skilled at helping, listening, organizing and planning for and with students. Residence Hall Directors go through extensive training to help students in their adjustment to the college experience. They are also well prepared to help answer questions and resolve problems which arise in the building. These upper-level students are available to help you and other residents create a positive community atmosphere in the hall. This includes confronting inappropriate behavior and meeting with students for disciplinary problems. The Residence Hall Directors are directly supervised by the Assistant Director of their respective area.

Resident Assistants

Resident Assistants (RA's) are also undergraduate staff members who reside on the floors with residents in each building. Your RA will quickly become one of the most important persons you will know during your stay in the residence halls. S/he is responsible for assisting in your personal and academic growth and promoting a positive atmosphere on the floor. Your RA is committed to serving as a planner, a programmer, a listener, an advisor, a resource person, and a university representative. They are also responsible for ensuring students act responsibly within the residence hall environment. RA's are students who have experienced much of what you will be going through and can serve as a valuable support as you pass through your own experiences.

Fraternity Counselors

Fraternity Counselors (FC's) are graduate or upper-level student staff members with the primary live-in responsibility for the student development, programming and administrative management of their respective fraternity house. By establishing and maintaining a cooperative relationship with the leadership and general membership of the fraternity, the Fraternity Counselor strives to accomplish the educational goals of Stetson University, and the Residential and Greek Life Programs.

Sorority Counselors

Each sorority house is directed by a Sorority Counselor (SC's) who is responsible for the overall management of the house. The Sorority Counselors are available to confront, counsel, and advise students, as well as develop programs which will assist the leadership and membership of the sorority in meeting their social and educational needs. The Sorority Counselors also strive to accomplish the educational goals of Stetson University, and the Residential and Greek Life programs.

Staff Duty

There is a staff member on duty each evening for each residence hall and for the Fraternity and Sorority Houses. To find the name and phone number of the staff member on duty for a particular evening, check the door of your Resident Assistant's, Fraternity Counselor's or Sorority Counselor's room. RA/FC/SC staff begin duty at 7:00 p.m. each evening. They will remain on duty and are available to students until 7:00 a.m. the following morning.

RA's on duty each evening will report to a Residence Hall Director on duty. Residence Hall Directors are available in cases of emergency as back up support to the RA's. The Residence Hall Director duty schedule is also posted on your Resident Assistant's door. Residence Hall Director duty is as follows:

Sunday through Wednesday evenings:

One Residence Hall Director is on duty for the campus. Duty begins at 5:00 p.m. and ends at 7:00 a.m. the following morning.

Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings:

One Residence Hall Director in each area is on duty for their area. Duty begins at 5:00 p.m. and ends at 5:00 p.m. the following evening.

FIRE SAFETY PROCEDURES

If you suspect or see a fire in the residential facilities you should:

1. Pull the closest fire alarm as you exit the building.
2. Call the DeLand Fire Department at 9-911.
3. Call Stetson Public Safety at extension 7300.
4. Notify a staff member of your sighting or suspicion.

AT NO POINT SHOULD STUDENTS
PUT THEMSELVES OR OTHERS AT RISK
WHEN THE ALARM SOUNDS,
LEAVE THE BUILDING IMMEDIATELY!

Fire drills, false alarms, and genuine fire alarms are indistinguishable from one another. You must evacuate the building whenever the fire alarm is sounded. Because of the variations in physical design of each of the residence facilities on the campus, see your building staff for specific evacuation instructions.

Here are a few guidelines to follow to prevent the possibility of fire:

1. Avoid using flammable room decorations.
2. Use of candles, open flames or incense of any kind is prohibited.
3. Do not overload circuits. Never use multiple plugs or extension cords.
4. Do not place electrical wiring under rugs, carpets, mattresses, bed springs, or around door and window casements.
5. Never use frayed or broken wires.
6. Use of live Christmas trees is prohibited in the residential facilities. No Christmas trees of any type should ever be placed in corridors or stair-wells. Never store gasoline, oil, oil base paint or oily rags in residential facilities.
7. Report any fire or empty fire extinguishers to your residential staff member.

FIRE SAFETY PROCEDURES

Familiarize yourself with the fire evacuation plan for your residential facility. Residents should do the following when the fire alarm sounds:

1. Proceed immediately to the nearest designated exit. When possible:
  - Wear a jacket and shoes.
  - Take a large bath towel (to cover your face in the event of intense heat and/or dense smoke.)
  - Close your room windows.
  - Leave the ceiling light on.
  - Leave your room door closed but unlocked.
2. Residents who are in rooms other than their own at the time of the alarm should evacuate the building with the residents of the floor on which they are visiting.
3. Once out of the facility, stay away from the area immediately surrounding the building.
4. Do not reenter the building until given permission by the Fire Department or Public Safety.
5. If there is a fire, certain precautions should be taken.
  - Stay low to the floor to protect yourself from smoke and toxic gases.
  - Check your door before opening it. If it is hot, DO NOT OPEN the door. If the door is cool and your path is clear to the exit, leave the building as soon as possible, closing the door behind you.
  - If you cannot leave your room, DO NOT panic. Sheets and towels placed at the base of the door will help keep smoke out of the room. Signal for fire fighters by hanging a sheet or blanket out of a window or use a flashlight, then stay low.

All rooms in a fire area are immediately searched by fire fighters who arrive only minutes after an alarm is activated.

RESIDENCE HALL ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES AND SERVICES

Belongings Between Semesters

Residents may leave their belongings in their rooms between the Fall and Spring semesters. All belongings must be removed at the end of the Spring semester and at the end of the Summer semester. The University cannot be responsible for any lost or stolen objects. If belongings are left in your room during the allowed periods and you decide not to return to Stetson you must remove your belongings immediately, but no later than the Wednesday prior to the official opening of the residential facilities or you will be billed for having those items placed into storage. Articles left in storage for 20 days without the student being enrolled will be discarded.

Check In/Check Out Procedures

Prior to the students' arrival, Residential Life and Student Life staff members will complete a Room Inventory Form for each student space. Students are required to review and sign these forms on the day of check-in to verify the condition of their living space when they arrive.

At the end of the contract period, each student must complete the following steps in order to properly check out of the building:

1. Sign up for a check out time with your Resident Assistant, Fraternity Counselor or Sorority Counselor.
2. Restore the walls, ceilings, doors, and windows to their original state by removing posters, decals, and other coverings.
3. All drawers must be emptied and dusted out.
4. All personal property and trash must be removed from the building.
5. University beds which have been disassembled must be reassembled.
6. Windows should be locked, and air conditioning and lights turned off.
7. Complete the Check-Out portion of the Room Inventory Form with your staff member.
8. Return your room and building access keys.
9. Failure to complete these steps properly at check out will result in a $50.00 charge for improper checkout, as well as a possible $25.00 cleaning charge. Failure to return your room key will result in a $25.00 charge; failure to return your building access key will result in a $5.00 charge.

Community Agreements

Following check-in, each floor will develop a Community Agreement defining the standards for behavior within their particular community. Community Agreements are developed within the parameters of the Student Code of Conduct. Once developed, all residents of that floor will be held accountable for upholding the Agreement. If changes are needed during the year, floor members should organize a Floor Meeting and revise their original Agreement.

Consolidation

If one of the residents of a double room moves from that room, the Department of Residential Life may assign a roommate for the remaining resident. In some cases, consolidation may occur; that is, moving students together who are in a double room by themselves. Depending on space constraints and occupancy rates, the Department of Residential Life may offer, for a fee, students who are living alone in a double room the option of requesting a double room as a single. Should this option be available, the department will notify students in writing in advance. Those students who do not wish to select the double as a single option may be subject to consolidation.

Furnishings

The University provides each resident with a bed, mattress, desk and chair, drawer space, and in some cases bookshelves, desk lights, and nightstands. Students are responsible for maintaining the condition of the furnishings in their room and in any common areas, such as lounges and lobbies. Students may arrange furniture within a room in any reasonable manner, providing that all furniture is placed in its original location at check-out. All University furniture must remain in its original room. Furniture may not be moved from one room to another. Extra furniture resulting from a vacancy in a room may not be moved into hallways, storage, or common areas. Beds which have been disassembled to allow for construction of a loft must be stored in the student's room. Students may be charged the full replacement cost of furniture removed from their room. Furnishings provided for lounges and community rooms may not be moved to a room. Students who move furniture from common areas into rooms may face a minimum fine of $25.00.

Holiday Periods

All residential facilities will be closed during official University holiday periods. All students are expected to leave the residence halls during the holiday periods. Contract extensions may be granted during holiday periods for academic reasons only. All requests for contract extensions should be made through your Assistant Director. Students may be billed for the period of the contract extension. Students granted permission to remain in the residence halls may be required to consolidate into one building for reasons of safety and security. Please refer to the residence hall schedule for the 2003-2004 academic year as printed in the calendar section of this handbook for dates and times of hall closings and openings.

Keys

If a resident loses his/her room key, s/he should report the loss to the Office of Residential Life. Residents reporting lost room key(s) will have their room re-keyed with a new lock and each resident of the room will be issued a new key. Each time a key is lost, the resident responsible will be charged $50.00 for replacement of the room key(s) and the lock change. Facilities Management will notify the resident when the new key is ready for pick up by placing a sticker on that resident's room door. It will then be the resident's responsibility to pick up the new key(s) from the Office of Residential Life within 24 hours. The student will be charged a $25.00 replacement cost for a building access key. Residential facility keys should not be commercially copied as the use of copy keys results in excessive wear and damage to the door locks. If a resident is found to be using a commercially copied key (i.e., other than a Stetson-issued key) s/he will be charged a $50.00 fine, as well as the replacement cost to rekey/recore the lock and make new keys. These fines are subject to change based on the key access system(s) utilized.

Lofts

Personally owned lofts may only be constructed in Emily Hall, Chaudoin Hall, or the sorority houses.. Construction must meet basic fire and safety standards. Prior to constructing a loft, each resident involved must complete a Loft Construction Agreement which lists the specific guidelines for loft construction. All lofts will be inspected by the Assistant Director of Residential Life and a Facilities Management representative. University beds disassembled for loft construction must be stored in the student's room and reassembled at the time of check out. Students will be charged $50.00 for beds not reassembled and $100.00 for lofts not removed at checkout. If a resident chooses to construct a loft, s/he will be responsible for any damage in the room caused by the loft.

Lounge Furnishings

The furniture in public areas is provided for the use of all residents and is not to be moved into students' rooms. Student(s) found to have lounge furniture in their room may be subject to judicial action.

Room Changes

A week is designated early in each semester as Room Change Week. All students desiring to initiate a move should do so by informing their Assistant Director during this week. See your RA, HR, or Assistant Director for details. Only those students who follow the guidelines of the process will be eligible to move. Residents who change rooms without obtaining approval from Residential Life may be required to move back to their assigned room. In addition, a $50.00 fine for each person involved may be assessed.

Roommate Conflicts

In the event of a roommate conflict, every attempt will be made to work with the residents involved to resolve the conflict. Should you be experiencing difficulty with your roommate, take the initial step of sitting down and reasonably discussing your concerns together to attempt to resolve differences. Should you find further assistance is needed, your Resident Assistant/Fraternity Counselor/Sorority Counselor should be contacted to serve as a mediator for you.

Should a conference with your Resident Assistant /Fraternity Counselor/Sorority Counselor be unsuccessful, consult with your Residence Hall Director. She/He will meet with you and your roommate to discuss the concerns at issue. In an effort to assist the staff in resolving the conflict, students must realize their responsibility for compromising and reasonably negotiating the conflict which exists. In the event a Residence Hall Director conference is unsuccessful, a conference with the Assistant Director for your area is required. Contact your Assistant Director to schedule an appointment for you and your roommate together.

No student will be permitted to make a change in his/her room assignment without written approval of the Assistant Director(s) responsible for their area.

No student will be permitted to make a change in his/her room assignment without written approval of the Assistant Director(s) responsible for their area.

Roommate Agreements

Roommate pairs at the beginning of the year, or those experiencing conflict during the year may want to consider, or may be asked to complete a Roommate Agreement similar to the Community Agreement. Your Resident Assistant can help in these situations. Residents will be held accountable for upholding the conditions of the agreement. This document is intended to serve as an agreement between roommates to ensure that each individual's rights are respected. Your level of enjoyment and satisfaction from residence hall living will depend to a large extent on the thoughtful consideration you demonstrate for one another. As roommates, you should mutually determine the decisions and the stipulations of the behavioral contract and endorse it.

Room Decorations

Decorations used for seasonal and/or special events must be of fire retardant material. Live Christmas trees, wreaths, or boughs are not permitted in the residential facilities. No partitions, dividers, or screens may be assembled or constructed in any room which would violate fire safety requirements. Residents may not paint walls, assemble shelves, bike racks, or fixtures of any kind without approval from their Assistant Director. Residents found to have done any of the above will be asked to remove the particular items and will be charged for repairs needed to restore the room to its original condition. Residents are not to make repairs themselves.

Special Activities

Stetson University offers a variety of special interest housing options including Honors Housing, Substance Free Housing, the Foreign Language House and the French House. Students living in Special Interest Housing areas will be held to the terms and conditions contained in the Community Agreement developed for their particular residential facility. Any student not upholding their Special Interest Housing Community Agreement may be asked to relocate to another residence hall.

Sports Activities

Recreational areas and playing fields are located near most residential facilities. Because of the risk of personal injury, damage to University or individual property, or disruption within the living environment, sports activities (including but not limited to golf, frisbee, roller-blading or skating, football, hockey, etc.) and the use of any sporting equipment are not permitted inside residential facilities except in designated areas.

Leadership – “To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a little better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is the meaning of success.”
- Ralph Waldo Emerson
